(Administrative Law Judge)

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5-1 – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated January 22, 2004, reference 01, which held claimant ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits. After due notice, a telephone conference hearing was scheduled for and held on February 17, 2004. Claimant participated. Employer participated by Gary McCarthy, Personnel Supervisor.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: Claimant last worked for employer on August 14, 2002. Claimant quit to go back to school. Claimant, since quitting has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the weekly benefit amount.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue in this matter is whether claimant quit for good cause attributable to employer. The administrative law judge holds that the evidence has failed to establish that claimant voluntarily quit for good cause attributable to employer when claimant terminated the employment relationship because claimant quit for a personal reason, going to school.

Iowa Code Section 96.5-1 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

However, claimant has requalified for benefits by earning ten times the weekly benefit amount since the separation and benefits shall be allowed.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated January 22, 2004, reference 01, is reversed. Unemployment insurance benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
