APPEAL 23A-UI-06092-CS-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 05/14/23
Claimant: Appellant (2R)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able and Available
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(2)(I)-On-Call Workers
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) – Able & Available – Part time, same hours and wages
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37)a & b – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a – Same Base Period Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 14, 2023, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the June 9, 2023, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on claimant being still employed in his job. Benefits were denied as of May 15, 2023. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on July 6, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer did not call in to participate.

ISSUES:

- I. Is the claimant partially, totally, or temporarily unemployed?
- II. Is claimant employed for the same hours and wages?
- III. Is the claimant able to work and available for work?
- IV. Is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer in August 2022. The employer is a staffing agency that places workers with contractors. Claimant was placed at Microsoft Data Center. Claimant last worked as a full-time data center technician. Claimant earned $19.00 an hour.

In March 2023 the employer's contract with Microsoft came to an end. The employer did not have other jobs available for claimant at that time. Claimant started with new employer, Palmroy Technologies, in March 2023. Claimant separated from Palmroy Technologies in May 2023. Claimant filed for benefits on May 14, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant is totally unemployed effective May 14, 2023.

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in § 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", subparagraph 1, or temporarily unemployed as defined in § 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of § 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under § 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2)(a),(b), and (c) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

- (a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and § 96.8, subsection 5.
- (b) An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding § 96.8, subsection 5.
- (c) The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under § 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under § 85.33, § 85.34, subsection 1, or § 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

The claimant is totally unemployed. The claimant is not currently employed under the same hours and wages as contemplated at hire and he is not receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period. Benefits may be allowed provided the claimant is otherwise eligible and subject to a decision being issued on the issue on remand.

The employer's account may be subject to charged for these benefits pending a determination on the separation.

DECISION:

The June 9, 2023, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant is totally unemployed and benefits are allowed, provided he is otherwise eligible and subject to a decision being made on the issues identified in the remand. Claimant is required to report gross wages earned for each week of benefits claimed. The employer's account may be charged pending a decision on the issues identified in the remand.

REMAND:

The claimant has separated from the employer. A decision regarding the claimant's separation from the employer has not been made by Iowa Workforce Development. The separation from the employer (Allegis Group, Inc.) is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development to investigate the separation and to issue a decision.
