WALMART INC

APPEAL 22A-UI-10467-S2-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 03/13/22
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Representative Participation Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the April 13, 2022, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon a finding that claimant was discharged with no evidence of misconduct. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 9, 2022. Claimant Jereese Gore did not participate. Employer Walmart, Inc. participated through digital coach Joshua Schultz. Employer's Exhibits 1 – 4 were received. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the claimant discharged for disqualifying, job-related misconduct?
Has the claimant been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits, and if so, can the repayment of those benefits to the agency be waived?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed full-time as a digital personal shopper from March 10, 2021, and was separated from employment on March 11, 2022, when she was discharged.

Employer maintains a violence in the workplace policy. The policy prohibits any form of violence against another associate. (Exhibit 4) Claimant was aware of the policy. (Exhibit 4)

The final incident leading to discharge occurred on March 10, 2022. On that day, claimant pushed a shopping cart into another associate. The cart hit the associate in her back. The associate complained to management about the incident. Employer conducted an investigation, which included interviewing and obtaining written statements from claimant and the associate and viewing security camera footage of the incident. (Exhibits 2, 3) During the investigation, employer learned claimant had been verbally aggressive with the associate on two other occasions, but the associate did not inform management about the verbal incidents until the physical incident occurred. Employer determined claimant intentionally pushed the cart into the associate, and on March 11, 2022, employer discharged claimant for violating its violence in the workplace policy.

The administrative record reflects that claimant has not filed any unemployment insurance benefits since filing a claim with an effective date of March 13, 2022. Employer participated in the fact-finding interview through witness Joshua Schultz.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant was discharged from employment due to job-related misconduct.

Iowa Code section 96.5(2)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

2. Discharge for misconduct. If the department finds that the individual has been discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment:

a. The individual shall be disqualified for benefits until the individual has worked in and has been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

871 IAC 24.32(1)a provides:

Discharge for misconduct.

(1) Definition.

a. "Misconduct" is defined as a deliberate act or omission by a worker which constitutes a material breach of the duties and obligations arising out of such worker's contract of employment. Misconduct as the term is used in the disqualification provision as being limited to conduct evincing such willful or wanton disregard of an employer's interest as is found in deliberate violation or disregard of standards of behavior which the employer has the right to expect of employees, or in carelessness or negligence of such degree of recurrence as to manifest equal culpability, wrongful intent or evil design, or to show an intentional and substantial disregard of the employer's interests or of the employee's duties and obligations to the employer. On the other hand mere inefficiency, unsatisfactory conduct, failure in good performance as the result of inability or incapacity, inadvertencies or ordinary negligence in isolated instances, or good faith errors in judgment or discretion are not to be deemed misconduct within the meaning of the statute.

This definition has been accepted by the Iowa Supreme Court as accurately reflecting the intent of the legislature. Huntoon v. Iowa Department of Job Service, 275 N.W.2d 445, 448 (Iowa 1979).

The employer bears the burden of proving that a claimant is disqualified from receiving benefits because of substantial misconduct within the meaning of Iowa Code section 96.5(2). Myers v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 462 N.W.2d 734, 737 (Iowa Ct. App. 1990). The issue is not whether the employer made a correct decision in separating claimant, but whether the claimant is entitled to unemployment insurance benefits. Infante v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 364 N.W.2d 262 (Iowa Ct. App. 1984). What constitutes misconduct justifying termination of an employee and what misconduct warrants denial of unemployment insurance benefits are two separate decisions. Pierce v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 425 N.W.2d 679 (Iowa Ct. App. 1988). Ct. App. 1984).

Claimant's action of intentionally pushing a shopping cart into a coworker's back violated employer's policy prohibiting violence in the workplace. Employer has an interest and duty in protecting the safety of all of its employees. The administrative law judge is persuaded claimant knew or should have known her conduct was contrary to the best interests of the employer. Therefore, based on the evidence presented, the claimant was discharged for misconduct, even without prior warning. Benefits are denied.

Because no benefits were paid to claimant, the issues of overpayment, repayment and chargeability are moot.

DECISION:

The April 13, 2022, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. Claimant was discharged from employment due to job-related misconduct. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible. The issues of overpayment, repayment and chargeability are moot.
