APPEAL 22A-UI-14036-DS-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

HYVEE INC
Employer

OC: 05/08/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total, Partial, and Temporary Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) - Eligibility – A&A – Part-time same hours, wages

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 19, 2022, the claimant filed an appeal from the unemployment insurance decision dated June 9, 2022, (Reference 01) that denied unemployment insurance benefits. Notice of hearing was mailed to the parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 9:00 a.m. on July 28, 2022, at Des Moines, Iowa. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated through Jodie Hitchcock, Human Resources, Barbara Buss, Unemployment Hearing Representative, and Matt Chenoweth, Store Manager. The hearing in this matter was consolidated with the hearing in Appeal Number 22A-UI-14037-DS-T. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant still employed at the same hours and wages as in her contract of hire?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge finds that:

The claimant has worked for this employer since June 7, 2021, on a part-time basis. At the time of hire, she was not guaranteed any number of hours. She was working as part of the store's Aisles Online group until May, then moved to Self-Checkout and Courtesy as needed. She was offered several other positions which could result in more hours, but she declined them. The claimant was briefly scheduled for fewer hours than usual in May 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis different from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

The claimant is still employed at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire. The claimant could not be considered partially, temporarily, or totally unemployed. Therefore, pursuant to Iowa unemployment security law and the administrative rules, claimant is not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

DECISION:

The June 9, 2022, (Reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant is not eligible for benefits as no separation has occurred and she is still employed in the same hours and wages as contemplated in her contract of hire.
