ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE AMENDED DECISION

OC: 04/10/22

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) – Part-Time Worker – Same Wages and Hours
Iowa Code § 96.4-3 – Able and Available
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)A(2) – Employer Chargeability
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated May 13, 2022 (reference 01) which held claimant not able and available for work. After due notice, a hearing was scheduled for and held on July 11, 2022. Claimant participated personally and with witness Jeff Nudd, human resources director for Walmart. Employer failed to respond to the hearing notice and did not participate. Claimant's Exhibit A, a document showing the two-week layoff, was admitted into evidence.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant is still employed at the same hours and wages?
Whether claimant is eligible to receive partial benefits?
Whether claimant is able and available for work?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant currently works for Walmart, a base period employer, full time under the same terms and conditions as contemplated in the original contract of hire. For a two week time period between April 12-25, 2022, claimant was laid off from work because of a lack of work. During that time, claimant was told that he could not leave the area as he might be called back to work at any time and he needed to be able to return if called back. Claimant remained at home throughout the two weeks and was able and available to work should his employer have called him back early from the temporary layoff.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant was temporarily unemployed for the period of April 12 through April 25, 2022.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c"(currently 96.1A(37)c). The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Because the claimant did not work for a two week period as a result of employer having a lack of work for that period, claimant is considered to be temporarily unemployed. He is eligible to receive unemployment benefits for the period between April 12-25, 2022 as he remained able and available to work throughout the period, but work was not available to him. As unlocking of benefits occurs on a Sunday through Saturday basis, claimant's benefits shall be unlocked for a period of April 10-23, 2022.

DECISION:

The May 13, 2022, reference 01, decision is reversed. The claimant is temporarily unemployed and benefits are allowed for the period of April 10-23, 2022, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
