Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

An appeal was filed from a representative's unemployment insurance decision dated May 23, 2014 (reference 01) that concluded claimant was eligible for unemployment insurance benefits after a separation from employment. Claimant appealed the adverse administrative law judge October 25, 2013 decision to the Employment Appeal Board. The employment appeal board on May 7, 2014 remanded the matter for a new hearing because claimant did not receive notice of the administrative law judge appeal hearing. The Employment Appeal Board did not vacate the administrative law judge decision, which denied benefits and found an overpayment. Claimant is hereby held as the appellant in this appeal hearing as the remand was the result of claimant's appeal of an adverse decision to the Employment Appeal Board. Notices of hearing were mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record for a telephone hearing scheduled for May 28, 2014. A review of the Appeals Bureau's conference call system indicates that the appellant (claimant) failed to respond to the hearing notice and provide a telephone number at which the appellant could be reached for the hearing and did not participate in the hearing. Based on the appellant's failure to participate in the hearing and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law and decision.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed based on the appellant's failure to appear and participate?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The parties were properly notified of the scheduled hearing for this appeal. The appellant failed to provide a telephone number at which the appellant could be reached for the hearing and did not participate in the hearing or request a postponement of the hearing as required by the hearing notice. Official notice of the Clear 2 There hearing control screen is taken to establish that appellant did not call the appeals bureau to provide a telephone number and name of a representative. The employer did not call nor participate.

The administrative law judge decision dated October 25, 2013 had concluded that the claimant was not eligible for unemployment insurance benefits and was overpaid unemployment benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides in pertinent part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. ... If a decision is rendered against a party who failed to appear for the hearing and the presiding officer is timely requested by that party to vacate the decision for good cause, the time for initiating a further appeal is stayed pending a determination by the presiding officer to grant or deny the request. If adequate reasons are provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall vacate the decision and, after proper service of notice, conduct another evidentiary hearing. If adequate reasons are not provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall deny the motion to vacate.

The Agency rules at Iowa Admin. Code r. 26.14(7) provide:

If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to provide a telephone number or is unavailable for the hearing, the presiding officer may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provided in Iowa Code § 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request to reopen the hearing under subrule 26.8(3) and shows good cause for reopening the hearing.

a. If an absent party responds to the hearing notice while the hearing is in progress, the presiding officer shall pause to admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.

b. If a party responds to the notice of hearing after the record has been closed and any party which has participated is no longer on the telephone line, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party. Instead, the presiding officer shall inquire ex parte as to why the party was late in responding to the notice of hearing. For good cause shown, the presiding officer shall reopen the record and cause further notice of hearing to be issued to all parties of record. The record shall not be reopened if the presiding officer does not find good cause for the party's late response to the notice of hearing.

c. Failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing shall not constitute good cause for reopening the record.

The appellant appealed the administrative law judge decision but failed to participate in the remand hearing. The appellant has therefore defaulted on appellant's appeal pursuant to Iowa Code §17A.12(3) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 24.14(7), and the administrative law judge's dated October 25, 2013 decision remains in force and effect.

Pursuant to the rule, the appellant must make a written request to the administrative law judge that the hearing be reopened within 15 days after the mailing date of this decision. The written request should be mailed to the administrative law judge at the address listed at the end of this decision and must explain the emergency or other good cause that prevented the appellant from participating in the hearing at its scheduled time. The appellant also has the option to appeal the decision directly to the Employment Appeal Board, whose address is listed at the top right caption.

DECISION:

The representative's decision (reference 01) dated May 23, 2014 is affirmed as modified by the administrative law judge October 25, 2013. The administrative law judge decision dated October 25, 2013, denying benefits remains in full force and effect.
