APPEAL 20A-UI-05625-AD-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

CITY OF IOWA CITY
Employer

OC: 05/17/20
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Employer/Representative Participation Fact-finding Interview

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On June 9, 2020, City of Iowa City (employer/appellant) filed an appeal from the June 5, 2020 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed unemployment insurance benefits.

A telephone hearing was held on June 29, 2020. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. Employer participated by Recreation Superintendent Brad Barker. Clara Froeschner (claimant/respondent) participated personally.

Employer's Exhibit 1 was admitted. Official notice was taken of the administrative record.

ISSUE(S):

- I. Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct, or voluntary quit without good cause?
- II. Was the claimant overpaid benefits? Should claimant repay benefits or should employer be charged due to employer participation in fact finding?
- III. Is the claimant eligible for Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant has worked for employer as a seasonal pool employee for several years. Claimant was most recently hired on December 5, 2019, to work between her semesters at Drake University in Des Moines. It was understood at that time that she would only be available for a month or so before having to discontinue working to return to school. The last day claimant worked on the job was January 17, 2020.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons set forth below, the June 5, 2020 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed unemployment insurance benefits is AFFIRMED.

- I. Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct, or voluntary quit without good cause?

Iowa Code section 96.5(1)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26 provides in relevant part:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(22) The claimant was hired for a specific period of time and completed the contract of hire by working until this specific period of time had lapsed. However, this subrule shall not apply to substitute school employees who are subject to the provisions of Iowa Code section 96.4(5) which denies benefits that are based on service in an educational institution when the individual declines or refuses to accept a new contract or reasonable assurance of continued employment status. Under this circumstance, the substitute school employees shall be considered to have voluntarily quit employment.

Claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). The employer has the burden of proving that a claimant's departure from employment was voluntary. Irving v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 883 N.W.2d 179 (Iowa 2016). "In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer". Id. (citing Cook v. Iowa Dept. of Job Service, 299 N.W.2d 698, 701 (Iowa 1980)).

"Good cause" for leaving employment must be that which is reasonable to the average person, not to the overly sensitive individual or the claimant in particular. Uniweld Products v. Industrial Relations Commission, 277 S.2d 827 (Florida App. 1973). While a notice of intent to quit is not required to obtain unemployment benefits where the claimant quits due to intolerable or detrimental working conditions, the case for good cause is stronger where the employee complains, asks for correction or accommodation, and employer fails to respond. Hy-Vee Inc. v. EAB, 710 N.W.2d 1 (Iowa 2005).

Iowa unemployment insurance law disqualifies claimants who voluntarily quit employment without good cause attributable to the employer or who are discharged for work-connected misconduct. Iowa Code §§ 96.5(1) and 96.5(2)a. A voluntary quitting of employment requires that an employee exercise a voluntary choice between remaining employed or terminating the employment relationship. Wills v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 447 N.W.2d 137, 138 (Iowa 1989); Peck v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 492 N.W.2d 438, 440 (Iowa Ct. App. 1992). A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980).

Claimant has carried her burden of proving the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to employer. Claimant was hired for a specific period of time and completed the contract of hire by working until this specific period of time had lapsed. As such, her separation from employment was not disqualifying. Benefits are allowed.

The other issues noticed need not be addressed.

DECISION:

The June 5, 2020 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed unemployment insurance benefits is AFFIRMED. The separation from employment was not disqualifying. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is not otherwise disqualified or ineligible. Employer's account shall be charged.
