(Administrative Law Judge)

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5-3-a – Refusal of Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer, Haws Family Operations, filed an appeal from a decision dated January 9, 2004, reference 04. The decision allowed benefits to the claimant, Lora Whitten. After due notice was issued a hearing was scheduled to be held by telephone conference call on February 2, 2004. Information received prior to that date makes this hearing unnecessary.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The records of Iowa Workforce Development indicate the claimant was offered a position with Casey's General Store located at 900 Main Street, Pella, Iowa. The employer to whom the decision was addressed is not the correct one, as it is located in Ankeny, Iowa.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether the claimant is disqualified. The judge concludes she is not.

Iowa Code Section 96.5-3-a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

3. Failure to accept work. If the department finds that an individual has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when directed by the department or to accept suitable work when offered that individual. The department shall, if possible, furnish the individual with the names of employers which are seeking employees. The individual shall apply to and obtain the signatures of the employers designated by the department on forms provided by the department. However, the employers may refuse to sign the forms. The individual's failure to obtain the signatures of designated employers, which have not refused to sign the forms, shall disqualify the individual for benefits until requalified. To requalify for benefits after disqualification under this subsection, the individual shall work in and be paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

a. In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the department shall consider the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness, prior training, length of unemployment, and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation, the distance of the available work from the individual's residence, and any other factor which the department finds bears a reasonable relation to the purposes of this paragraph. Work is suitable if the work meets all the other criteria of this paragraph and if the gross weekly wages for the work equal or exceed the following percentages of the individual's average weekly wage for insured work paid to the individual during that quarter of the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest:

(1) One hundred percent, if the work is offered during the first five weeks of unemployment.

(2) Seventy-five percent, if the work is offered during the sixth through the twelfth week of unemployment.

(3) Seventy percent, if the work is offered during the thirteenth through the eighteenth week of unemployment.

(4) Sixty-five percent, if the work is offered after the eighteenth week of unemployment.

However, the provisions of this paragraph shall not require an individual to accept employment below the federal minimum wage.

The claimant was not offered work from this employer. The offer of work came from another Casey's General Store located in Pella, Iowa.

DECISION:

The representative's decision of January 9, 2004, reference 04, is modified in favor of the appellant. Lora Whitten was not offered employment from Haws Family Operations, Inc. This matter is remanded to the Claims Section for a decision relating to the correct employer.
