APPEAL 24A-UI-01848-DS-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

30HOP ANKENY LLC
Employer

OC: 09/24/23
Claimant: Respondent (1-R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest

Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On February 12, 2024, the employer filed an appeal from the Statement of Charges mailed from the Department on February 9, 2024, (Reference 06) for the 4th Quarter of 2023. A hearing was held on March 14, 2024, pursuant to due notice. The employer participated through Dallas Grijalva, Human Resources Director. No exhibits were admitted to the record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?

Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

Is the statement of charges correct?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The claimant was a Line Cook for this employer from February 26, 2023, until March 19, 2023. The claimant filed a claim for benefits with an original effective date of September 24, 2023. A Notice of Claim was sent to the employer on September 30, 2023 and the employer protested using the State Information Data Exchange System (SIDES) on October 3, 2023. The employer received no other communications from the Department regarding this claim until the Statement of Charges mailed February 9, 2024.

The employer filed its timely appeal of that Statement of Charges on February 15, 2024.

The Department has issued a new decision dated March 4, 2024, (Reference 02) which relieves this employer of charges due to the claimant having earned ten times the claimant's weekly benefit amount in wages for insured work since the separation.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes that the employer has filed a timely appeal from the Statement of Charges mailed February 9, 2024 for the 4th Quarter of 2023. The employer timely protested the claim using the SIDES system. The employer did not have an opportunity to appeal the decision of the Department as it did not receive it.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

The administrative law judge concludes that the employer filed its appeal of the 4th Quarter of 2023 Statement of Charges within the time period prescribed by Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) because the Statement of Charges was the first time that the employer was notified that it would be charged for benefits paid to claimant. The employer's appeal of the 4th Quarter of 2023 Statement of Charges within thirty days is timely. The employer's protest of the claim was timely. The employer did not have an opportunity to appeal the decision of the Department because the employer did not receive it. The Department's decision dated March 4, 2024, (Reference 02) relieves the employer of charges for this claim.

DECISION:

The February 9, 2024, statement of charges for the 4th Quarter of 2023 is AFFIRMED.

REMAND:

The Statement of Charges is REMANDED to the Department for correction to reflect the decision of the Department dated March 4, 2024 (Reference 02) relieving this employer of charges for this claim.
