(Administrative Law Judge)

June 29, 2007

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.16-4 - Misrepresentation
Section 96.3-7 - Recovery of Overpayments

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from an Iowa Workforce Development decision dated May 29, 2007, reference 03, which held that the claimant was overpaid unemployment benefits in the amount of $193.00, because she failed to report wages earned with Liberty Group Iowa (Charles City Press), for the period from April 8, 2007 to April 28, 2007.

After due notice was issued, a hearing was scheduled for a telephone conference call on June 25, 2007. The claimant did not participate. Jane Connor, Investigator, participated for Iowa Workforce Development, Investigation and Recovery.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony of the witness, and having examined all of the evidence in the record, finds: The claimant filed a claim for unemployment benefits with an effective date of April 1, 2007. The claimant claimed for and received unemployment benefits during the second quarter of 2007.

The Charles City Press reported to the department that the claimant began employment on April 9, 2007. An employer representative reported to the department the gross earnings paid to the claimant during the period from April 9, 2007 to April 28, 2007. The department compared the employer's wage report against the claimant's claims for the same weeks.

The employer reported the claimant earned gross wages of $93, $73, and $93 for the three-weeks ending April 28, 2007, and the claimant did not report any work and/or wages. The claimant received a benefit of $88 for each week. Based on the employer's wage report, the claimant was entitled to a benefit of $17, $37, and $17 for each of the weeks that caused an overpayment of $71, $51, and $71.

Investigator Connor mailed a notice to the claimant on May 17, 2007 regarding the department audit and $193 overpayment, but the claimant failed to respond.

The claimant did not respond to the hearing notice.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether the claimant is overpaid benefits $193, and if so whether it is the result of misrepresentation.

Iowa Code Section 96.16-4 provides:

4. Misrepresentation. An individual who, by reason of the nondisclosure or misrepresentation by the individual or by another of a material fact, has received any sum as benefits under this chapter while any conditions for the receipt of benefits imposed by this chapter were not fulfilled in the individual's case, or while the individual was disqualified from receiving benefits, shall, in the discretion of the department, either be liable to have the sum deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual under this chapter or shall be liable to repay to the department for the unemployment compensation fund, a sum equal to the amount so received by the individual. If the department seeks to recover the amount of the benefits by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to that amount, the department may file a lien with the county recorder in favor of the state on the individual's property and rights to property, whether real or personal. The amount of the lien shall be collected in a manner similar to the provisions for the collection of past-due contributions in section 96.14, subsection 3.

Iowa Code Section 96.3-7 provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The division of job service in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the division a sum equal to the overpayment.

If the division determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant is overpaid benefits $193 for the 3-weeks ending April 28, 2007 pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.16-4. The claimant failed to report her work and wages when asked to record the information while claiming for unemployment.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated May 29, 2007, reference 03, is AFFIRMED. The claimant is overpaid benefits $193 due to misrepresentation.
