ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

TEAM STAFFING SOLUTIONS INC
Employer

OC: 08/28/11
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Section 96.5-1-j – Separation from Temporary Employer

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Linda Fox (claimant) appealed a representative's September 21, 2011 decision (reference 01) that concluded she was not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits due to her separation from work with Team Staffing Solutions (employer). After hearing notices were mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record, a telephone hearing was held on October 19, 2011. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated by Sarah Fiedler, Claims Administrator. The employer offered and Exhibit A was received into evidence.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether the claimant was separated from employment for any disqualifying reason.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The employer is a temporary employment service. The claimant performed services starting on September 1, 2010. Her last assignment to work at Metro Group started on May 10, 2011. She signed a document on May 9, 2011, indicating that she was to contact the employer within three days following the completion of an assignment to request placement in a new assignment. The claimant was given a copy of the document which was not part of the contract for hire.

The claimant properly reported absence due to illness on May 13, 2011. Later that morning the employer notified the claimant that she should not return to work at Metro Group on Monday, May 16, 2011. At 1:08 p.m. on May 13, 2011, the claimant sought reassignment from the employer but no work was available.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow the administrative law judge concludes the claimant was not separated from the employer for any disqualifying reason.

Iowa Code § 96.5-1-j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, but the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

The claimant did request reassignment and has, therefore, satisfied the requirements of Iowa Code § 96.5-1-j. Benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The representative's September 21, 2011 decision (reference 01) is reversed. The claimant was separated from the employer for good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are allowed. The claimant is eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits.
