Iowa Code § 96.5(13) – Disqualification due to Outstanding Fraud Overpayment
Iowa Code § 96.16(4) – Offenses and Misrepresentation
Section 96.3-7 – Recovery of Overpayment of Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the February 28, 2023 (reference 05) Iowa Workforce Development (“IWD”) unemployment insurance decision which concluded the claimant was ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits due to an outstanding fraud overpayment balance.

The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on March 21, 2023. The claimant participated personally along with Spanish Interpreter Jesus Sanchez. Debbie Rumbaugh, Investigator II participated on behalf of IWD. IWD Exhibits 1-7 were admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant’s unemployment insurance benefits records. Based on the evidence, the arguments presented, and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law, and decision.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant ineligible for benefits due to an outstanding fraud overpayment balance?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of March 29, 2020. An investigatory audit was later conducted regarding the claimant’s failure to report all wages while she concurrently filed weekly continued claims for benefits. The claimant was aware of the investigation, and the possibility of an overpayment of benefits.

Consequently, a decision was issued on February 28, 2020, which found that the claimant was overpaid regular unemployment benefits in the amount of $1,101.00, and Federal Pandemic Unemployment Benefits (FPUC) in the amount of $3,000.00. The decisions did not conclude that claimant had engaged in fraud and therefore did not include a 15% penalty.

The claimant has not filed a claim for benefits since 2020.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that the claimant is eligible for benefits provided claimant meets all other eligibility requirements.

Iowa Code section 96.16(4)(a) provides:

4. Misrepresentation.

a. An individual who, by reason of the nondisclosure or misrepresentation by the individual or by another of a material fact, has received any sum as benefits under this chapter while any conditions for the receipt of benefits imposed by this chapter were not fulfilled in the individual's case, or while the individual was disqualified from receiving benefits, shall, be liable to repay to the department for the unemployment compensation fund, a sum equal to the amount so received by the individual. If the department seeks to recover the amount of the benefits by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to that amount, the department may file a lien with the county recorder in favor of the state on the individual's property and rights to property, whether real or personal. The amount of the lien shall be collected in a manner similar to the provisions for the collection of past-due contributions in section 96.14, subsection 3.

“Fraud” means the intentional misuse of facts or truth to obtain or increase unemployment insurance benefits for oneself or another or to avoid the verification and payment of employment security taxes; a false representation of a matter of fact, whether by statement or by conduct, by false or misleading statements or allegations; or by the concealment or failure to disclose that which should have been disclosed, which deceives and is intended to deceive another so that they, or the department, shall not act upon it to their, or its, legal injury. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871- 25.1. “Misrepresentation” means to give misleading or deceiving information to or omit material information; to present or represent in a manner at odds with the truth. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871- 25.1

Iowa Code section 96.5(13) provides:

Overpayment resulting in disqualification. If the department finds that an individual has received benefits by reason of misrepresentation pursuant to section 96.16, such individual shall be disqualified for benefits until the balance of the benefits received by the individual due to misrepresentation, including all penalties, interest, and lien fees, is paid in full.

Iowa Code section 96.3(7) provides, in pertinent part:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

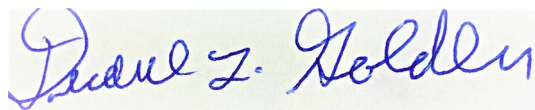

b. (1)(a) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5. The employer shall not be relieved of charges if benefits are paid because the employer or an agent of the employer failed to respond timely or adequately to the department's request for information relating to the payment of benefits. This prohibition against relief of charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers. If the department determines that an employer's failure to respond timely or adequately was due to insufficient notification from the department, the employer's account shall not be charged for the overpayment.

The undisputed evidence is the claimant participated in an investigatory audit and a decision was issued on February 23, 2023 which concluded that claimant was overpaid benefits. That decision did not impose a 15% penalty, and did not find that claimant had knowingly engaged in fraud.

Based on the evidence presented, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant currently owes a balance of $1,101.00 for regular unemployment benefits, and $3000.00 for Federal Pandemic Unemployment Benefits (FPUC) and the department may recover those amounts pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.3(7). The department did not conclude that claimant had engaged in fraud, and the claimant is therefore eligible to receive benefits provided claimant files a valid claim and meets all other eligibility requirements.

DECISION:

The February 28, 2023 (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant is eligible for benefits provided claimant meets all other eligibility requirements.
