APPEAL 24A-UI-09886-S2-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 05/19/24
Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(8)b(4) – Application for Redetermination
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-23.43(9)a – Combined Wage Claim Relief of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On November 21, 2024, Progress Industries (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated November 8, 2024, reference 02, for the third quarter of 2024. A hearing was held on December 10, 2023, pursuant to due notice. Denise Butler (claimant) did not respond to the hearing notice and did not participate. Employer participated through human resources director Pamela Eiler. The Department's Exhibits D1 through D2 were received. The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Did the employer file a timely appeal from the statement of charges?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant worked for this employer as a direct support professional and separated from her employment on August 18, 2023. Claimant filed a combined wage claim for unemployment insurance benefits in the state of Oklahoma effective May 19, 2024. The administrative record does not reflect that Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) mailed a notice of claim or notice of wage transfer to the employer's address of record. Employer did not receive a notice of claim or notice of wage transfer.

Employer's first notice that indicated charges attributable to claimant's claim had been made to the account was the receipt of the statement of charges mailed November 8, 2024, for the third quarter of 2024. The employer filed its appeal of the statement of charges on November 21, 2024.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did file a timely appeal to the statement of charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-23.43(9)(a) and (b) provide:

Combined wage claim transfer of wages.

a. Iowa employers whose wage credits are transferred from Iowa to an out-of-state paying state under the interstate reciprocal benefit plan as provided in Iowa Code section 96.20 will be liable for charges for benefits paid by the out-of-state paying state. No reimbursement so payable shall be charged against a contributory employer's account for the purpose of Iowa Code section 96.7, unless wages so transferred are sufficient to establish a valid Iowa claim, and such charges shall not exceed the amount that would have been charged on the basis of a valid Iowa claim. However, an employer who is required by law or by election to reimburse the trust fund will be liable for charges against the employer's account for benefits paid by another state as required in Iowa Code section 96.8(5), regardless of whether the Iowa wages so transferred are sufficient or insufficient to establish a valid Iowa claim. Benefit payments shall be made in accordance with the claimant's eligibility under the paying state's law. Charges shall be assessed to the employer which are based on benefit payments made by the paying state.

b. The Iowa employer whose wage credits have been transferred and who has potential liability will be notified that the wages have been transferred, the state to which they have been transferred, and the mailing address to which a protest of potential charges may be mailed. This protest must be postmarked or received by the department within ten days of the date on the notice to be considered as a timely protest of charges. If the protest from either the reimbursable or contributory employer justifies relief of charges, charges shall go to the balancing account.

Employer did not receive a notice of claim or a notice of wage transfer. Employer filed the appeal to the November 8, 2024 statement of charges, the first notice it had that its account could be charged on November 21, 2024, within thirty days. Its appeal of the November 8, 2024 statement of charges is timely and appropriate. The timely appeal from the statement of charges also constitutes a timely protest.

The claimant's qualification and eligibility shall be determined by the state of Oklahoma, where the claim was filed. This matter will be remanded for determination of whether the employer's account should be charged for benefits.

DECISION:

The November 8, 2024, reference 02, statement of charges for the third quarter of 2024 is AFFIRMED, pending the outcome of the remanded issue. Employer has filed a timely appeal from that statement of charges. The timely appeal from the statement of charges also constitutes a timely protest. The claimant's qualification and eligibility shall be determined by the state of Oklahoma, where the claim was filed.

REMAND:

This matter is REMANDED to Iowa Workforce Development Benefits Bureau for determination of whether the employer's account should be charged for benefits in connection with the wage transfer to Oklahoma..
