APPEAL NO. 08A-UI-01840-MT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 01/27/08 R: 02 Claimant: Appellant (3)

Section 96.5-5 – Pension

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant appealed a representative's decision dated February 14, 2008, reference 02, that concluded claimant was ineligible for full benefits effective January 27, 2008 for unemployment insurance benefits, due to the receipt of pension benefits. A telephone hearing was scheduled and held on March 10, 2008, pursuant to due notice. Claimant did participate. Exhibit A was admitted into evidence.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether pension pay was deducted for the correct period and amount.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant's employment with employer was separated on January 1, 2007 from Qwest Corporation a base period employer. Claimant received pension pay in the amount of $219.23 per week based upon a rate of $950.00 per month. The monthly payments accrue from an IRA account which is funded by rollover pension money from claimant's separation from Qwest Corporation.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that pension pay was deducted for the correct period but for an improper amount. Claimant receives weekly pension amounts of $219.23. The IRA is a pension, as it was fully funded by Qwest rollover money from the Qwest pension. Qwest was a base period employer. The amounts are deductible.

Iowa Code section 96.5-5 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

5. Other compensation. For any week with respect to which the individual is receiving or has received payment in the form of any of the following:

- a. Wages in lieu of notice, separation allowance, severance pay, or dismissal pay.
- b. Compensation for temporary disability under the workers' compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States.
- c. A governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or any other similar periodic payment made under a plan maintained or contributed to by a base period or chargeable employer where, except for benefits under the federal Social Security Act or the federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1974 or the corresponding provisions of prior law, the plan's eligibility requirements or benefit payments are affected by the base period employment or the remuneration for the base period employment. However, if an individual's benefits are reduced due to the receipt of a payment under this paragraph, the reduction shall be decreased by the same percentage as the percentage contribution of the individual to the plan under which the payment is made.

Provided, that if the remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter, the individual is entitled to receive for the week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of the remuneration. Provided further, if benefits were paid for any week under this chapter for a period when benefits, remuneration or compensation under paragraph "a", "b", or "c", were paid on a retroactive basis for the same period, or any part thereof, the department shall recover the excess amount of benefits paid by the department for the period, and no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid. However, compensation for service-connected disabilities or compensation for accrued leave based on military service, by the beneficiary, with the armed forces of the United States, irrespective of the amount of the benefit, does not disqualify any individual, otherwise qualified, from any of the benefits contemplated herein. A deduction shall not be made from the amount of benefits payable for a week for individuals receiving federal social security pensions to take into account the individuals' contributions to the pension program.

DECISION:

mdm/kjw

The February 14, 2008, reference 02, decision is modified adverse to claimant. The pension pay was deducted for the correct period. Claimant receives weekly pension amounts totaling $219.23, which shall be deducted from unemployment benefits effective January 27, 2008.
