APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-07700-JT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 01/08/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code Section 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code Section 96.4(3) – Able & Available, Work Search Warning

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On August 4, 2023, Steven Ames (claimant) filed an appeal that the Appeals Bureau treated as a late appeal from the February 21, 2023 (reference 01) work search warning decision that reminded the claimant he was required to engage in four reemployment activities, including three job applications, each benefit week and that warned the claimant could be disqualified for benefits for future weeks in which the claimant did not meet the work search requirements. The reference 01 decision cited the claimant's weekly claim for the week ending February 18, 2023 as the basis for the work search warning decision. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on August 23, 2023. The claimant participated. There were nine appeal numbers set for a consolidated hearing: 23A-UI-07700-JT-T, 23A-UI-07701-JT-T, 23A-UI-07702-JT-T, 23A-UI-07703-JT-T, 23A-UI-07704-JT-T, 23A-UI-07705-JT-T, 23A-UI-07706-JT-T, 23A-UI-07707-JT-T, and 23A-UI-07708-JT-T. Exhibits A through D were received into evidence at the time of the hearing. The administrative law judge took official notice of the following agency administrative records: DBRO, KCCO, KFFV, NMRO and the reference 01 through 09 decisions. The administrative law judge left the hearing record open through August 30, 2023 for the limited purpose of allowing the claimant to submit documentation pertaining to his work search. On August 25, 2023, the Appeals Bureau received the claimant's mailed packet of supporting documents, which were received into evidence as Exhibit E.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant's appeal from the February 21, 2023 (reference 01) work search warning decision was timely. Whether there is good cause to treat the appeal as timely.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

On February 21, 2023, Iowa Workforce Development mailed the reference 01 work search warning decision to the claimant's Cambridge, Illinois last-known address of record. The reference 01 decision reminded the claimant that he was required to engage in four reemployment activities, including three job applications, each benefit week and warned the claimant could be disqualified for benefits for future weeks in which the claimant did not meet the work search requirements. The reference 01 decision cited the claimant's weekly claim for the week ending February 18, 2023 as the basis for the work search warning decision. The reference 01 decision stated the decision would become final unless an appeal was postmarked by March 3, 2023 or was received by the Appeals Section by that date. The claimant received the reference 01 decision in a timely manner, prior to the deadline for appeal. The claimant elected not to take steps to file an appeal from the work search warning decision by the appeal deadline.

On August 4, 2023, the claimant completed and transmitted an online appeal from the July 25, 2023, reference 02 through reference 09 decisions. The reference 02 through 09 decisions each referred to the earlier work search warning decision. The Appeals Bureau received the electronic appeal on August 4, 2023 and treated it as also a late appeal from the February 21, 2023 (reference 01) work search warning decision.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsections 10 and 11, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten-day deadline for appeal begins to run on the date Workforce Development mails the decision to the parties. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the Agency representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

An appeal submitted by mail is deemed filed on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it was received, or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(a). See also Messina v. IDJS, 341 N.W.2d 52 (Iowa 1983). An appeal submitted by any other means is deemed filed on the date it is received by the Unemployment Insurance Division of Iowa Workforce Development. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(1)(b).

The evidence in the record establishes that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). One question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

No submission shall be considered timely if the delay in filing was unreasonable, as determined by the division after considering the circumstances in the case. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2)(c).

The evidence in the record establishes an untimely appeal from the February 21, 2023 (reference 01) work search warning decision. The claimant received the reference 01 decision in a timely manner and had a reasonable opportunity to file an appeal by the March 3, 2023 appeal deadline. The claimant never intended to file an appeal from the reference 01 work search warning decision. The appeal the claimant filed on August 4, 2023, as it relates to the reference 01 work search warning decision, is five months late. The late filing of the appeal was not attributable to the Iowa Workforce Development error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. There is not good cause to treat the appeal as a timely appeal. See Iowa Administrative Code rule 871-24.35(2). Because the appeal was untimely, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to disturb the February 21, 2023 (reference 01) work search warning decision. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).
