APPEAL 18A-UI-07392-CL-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 01/07/18
Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer filed an appeal from the Statement of Charges dated July 6, 2018, for the second quarter of 2018. A hearing was scheduled and held on August 3, 2018, pursuant to due notice. Claimant participated. Employer participated through manager Bruce Ihle. Official notice was taken of the administrative record, including the notice of claim.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the Statement of Charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant filed a claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of January 7, 2018. Employer did not receive a notice of claim. The first notice of the claimant's claim for benefits was the receipt of the Statement of Charges mailed July 6, 2018, for the second quarter of 2018, which included charges for claimant. The employer filed its appeal of that Statement of Charges on July 11, 2018. Employer asserts claimant voluntarily resigned without good cause attributable to employer. Claimant states his last day of work was December 4, 2017. The issue of whether claimant's separation from employment with employer disqualifies him from receiving unemployment insurance benefits has not yet been determined by the agency.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer filed a timely appeal from the Statement of Charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

The administrative law judge concludes that the employer filed its appeal of the Statement of Charges within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law because it did not receive the notice of claim indicating the claimant had filed a claim for benefits. The employer's appeal of that Statement within thirty days is timely. The issue of whether the separation from employment disqualifies claimant from receiving unemployment insurance benefits is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.

DECISION:

The July 6, 2018, Statement of Charges for the second quarter of 2018 is affirmed pending the results of the investigation and determination by the Benefits Bureau regarding whether claimant's separation from employment disqualifies him from receiving unemployment insurance benefits. The employer has filed a timely appeal from that Statement of Charges, as the Notice of Claim was not received.

REMAND:

The issue of whether claimant's separation from employment disqualifies him from receiving unemployment insurance benefits is remanded to Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.
