CHRISTINE A KLOSSNER
Claimant

APPEAL NO: 23A-UI-00141-SN-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 12/11/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.9(1)B – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.4(4) – Monetary Eligibility
Iowa Code section 96.3(4) – Determination of Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Christine A. Klossner, filed an appeal from the November 23, 2022, monetary record that denied benefits because to add additional wages she believed she received from her employer that were not on it. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on January 26, 2023 at 11:00 a.m. The claimant participated. The employer did not participate. Official notice was taken of the agency records. The appeal 22A-UI-00143-SN-T was heard jointly with this appeal. Exhibits D-1 and D-2 were entered into the record.

This administrative law judge is issuing this amendment because the appeal numbers were accidentally inverted on these decisions.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant's appeal to the monetary record timely? Should the appeal period be extended due to circumstances beyond her control?

Should the claimant's monetary record be amended to include wages earned from this employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

A corrected monetary record was mailed to the claimant's last known address of record on December 19, 2022. The claimant received the record. (Exhibit D-1) The record contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Section within ten days of the date of mailing. The appeal was not filed until January 6, 2023, which is after the expiration of the ten-day appeal period. (Exhibit D-2)

The claimant explained that she did not intend to appeal it. Rather the claimant was only interested in the companion case on appeal.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal of the monetary record is untimely.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of issuance of the notice of the filing of the claim to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.9(1)B

(1) Monetary determinations.

a. When an initial claim for benefits is filed, the department shall send to the individual claiming benefits a notification consisting of a statement of the individual's weekly benefit amount, total benefits, base period wages, and other data pertinent to the individual's benefit rights.

b. The monetary record shall constitute a final decision unless newly discovered facts which affect the validity of the original determination or a written request for reconsideration is filed by the individual within ten days of the date of the mailing of the monetary record specifying the grounds of objection to the monetary record.

The ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976). This would apply to the date of the monetary record as well.

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from determinations within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

The record shows that the appellant did have a reasonable opportunity to file a timely appeal. In fact, the claimant did not intend to file an appeal to her monetary record, rather she appealed a decision sent to her shortly thereafter and the Appeals Bureau's intake department interpreted as an appeal to her monetary record. Given these circumstances, the appeal period should not be extended because the claimant considered and rejected filing an appeal to the monetary record.

The administrative law judge concludes that failure to file a timely appeal within the time prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law was not due to any Agency error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to 871 IAC 24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the appeal was not timely filed pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.6-2, and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The November 23, 2022, monetary record, decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant's appeal to the monetary determination is untimely. As a result, the administrative law judge lacks the authority to evaluate the claim.
