KIDZ CORNER LLC

APPEAL 23A-UI-10832-PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 06/25/23
Claimant: Respondent (1R)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On November 15, 2023, the employer, Kidz Corner LLC, filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated November 9, 2023, which listed benefit charge information for the third quarter of 2023. Pursuant to due notice, a telephone hearing was held on December 7, 2023. The claimant, Kayla Brown, did not participate. The employer participated through Owner/Director Tina Terrell. The administrative law judge took official notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records including the notice of claim.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?

Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant separated from employment on June 28, 2023, and filed a claim for benefits effective June 25, 2023. The notice of claim was mailed to the employer's correct address of record on July 3, 2023. The employer did not receive the notice of claim. The first notice of the claimant's claim for benefits the employer received was the statement of charges mailed November 9, 2023, for the third quarter of 2023. The employer filed its appeal of that statement of charges on November 15, 2023.

The issue of whether the claimant's separation qualifies her for benefits and whether the employer's account will be charged has not yet been investigated or adjudicated by the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did file a timely appeal to the statement of charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

Filing – determination – appeal.

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

Employer contribution and reimbursements.

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

The employer filed its appeal of the statement of charges within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law because it did not receive the notice of claim indicating the claimant had filed a claim for benefits. The employer's appeal of that statement within thirty days is timely.

As the appeal is timely and the employer did not previously receive notice of the claim, the issues of whether claimant's separation from this employer qualifies her for benefits and whether the employer's account will be charged are remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.

DECISION:

The November 9, 2023, statement of charges for the third quarter of 2023 is affirmed, pending the outcome of the remanded issue. The employer has filed a timely appeal from that statement of charges, as the notice of claim was not received.

REMAND:

The issues of whether claimant's separation from employment was disqualifying and whether the employer's account shall be charged are remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.
