APPEAL 22A-UI-09676-DZ-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 03/29/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
PL 116-136, Sec. 2104 – Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Mellisa Haage, the claimant/appellant, filed an appeal from the April 7, 2022 (reference 06) unemployment insurance (UI) decision that concluded she was overpaid Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC) benefits in the gross amount of $1,200.00. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 1, 2022. Ms. Haage participated personally. The department did not participate in the hearing. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Has Ms. Haage been overpaid FPUC benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Ms. Haage filed an initial claim for REGULAR (state) UI benefits effective March 29, 2020. Almost four months after she filed her initial claim effective March 29, 2020, IWD issued a July 15, 2020, (reference 01) UI decision finding Ms. Haage not eligible for REGULAR (state) UI benefits as of March 29, 2020 because she was still employed with employer Manpower International Inc. for the same hours and wages as in her original contract of hire. Ms. Haage appealed that UI decision to the Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Bureau.

While Ms. Haage waited for an appeal hearing to be scheduled, she continued to file weekly UI claims and IWD paid her REGULAR (state) UI benefits on her claim. IWD also paid Ms. Haage FPUC benefits in the gross amount of $1,200.00 for 2 weeks; $600.00 for the week of June 7-13, 2020, and $600 for the week of June 14-20, 2020.

FPUC was a program under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act of 2020 that provided additional payment to those individuals that are receiving state or federal unemployment insurance payments. It is funded by the federal government, not by state unemployment taxes paid by employers. The Continued Assistance for Unemployed Workers Act of 2020 (enacted December 27, 2020) and American Rescue Act of 2021 (enacted March 11, 2021) extended FPUC benefits for weeks of unemployment to September 6, 2021. The FPUC amount was $600.00 per week from April 5, 2020 through July 31, 2020. The FPUC amount was $300.00 per week from December 27, 2020 through September 5, 2021. Governor Reynolds ended Iowa's participation in federal pandemic-related unemployment benefit programs, including the FPUC program, effective June 12, 2021.

The appeal hearing was scheduled for August 7, 2020 and the administrative law judge's decision in Appeal 20A-UI-07364-DG-T was issued on August 17, 2020. The administrative law judge's decision dismissed Ms. Haage's appeal because she did not give IWD Appeals a phone number at which to call her.

Almost four months after IWD issued the July 15, 2020, (reference 01) UI decision, and close to eight months she filed her initial claim effective March 29, 2020 and had already received REGULAR (state) UI benefits, IWD issued another decision, dated November 24, 2020, (reference 03). That decision found Ms. Haage not eligible for REGULAR (state) UI benefits because of an August 16, 2020 voluntary quit from employer Manpower International Inc. Ms. Haage appealed that UI decision to the Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Bureau. The appeal hearing was held on January 27, 2021. The administrative law judge's decision in Appeal 20A-UI-15687-SN-T reversed the reference 03 UI decision. Ms. Haage participated in that hearing and the administrative law judge concluded that since she had quit to take other employment, Ms. Haage was eligible for UI benefits.

Almost eight months after IWD issued the November 24, 2020, (reference 03) UI decision, and close to one year after she filed her initial claim effective March 29, 2020 and had already received REGULAR (state) UI benefits, IWD issued yet another decision, dated March 10, 2021, (reference 02). That decision found Ms. Haage not eligible for REGULAR (state) UI benefits as of May 17, 2020 because she was still employed with employer Manpower International Inc. for the same hours and wages as in her original contract of hire. Ms. Haage appealed that UI decision to the Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Bureau. The appeal hearing was held on June 2, 2021. Ms. Haage participated in that hearing and the administrative law judge's decision in Appeal 21A-UI-08064-DG-T affirmed the reference 02 UI decision.

Ms. Haage applied for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) benefits on July 18, 2020 because she was home from work due to COVID-19 and was not allowed back to work after quarantining even though she had no symptoms. Ms. Haage applied for PUA benefits again on August 11, 2020 because her hours were reduced when her employer sent her home because she was feeling sick. Ms. Haage applied for PUA benefits again on September 24, 2020 because her child tested positive for COVID-19, she provided care for her grandchild, and her employer advised to quarantine because she was exposed to someone who had tested positive for COVID-19. On October 5, 2020, IWD issued a decision finding Ms. Haage eligible for PUA benefits as of August 16, 2020.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes as follows:

Iowa Code §96.3(7) provides, in pertinent part:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.

- a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

b. (1) (a) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

PL116-136, Sec. 2104 provides, in pertinent part:

(b) Provisions of Agreement

(1) Federal pandemic unemployment compensation.--Any agreement under this section shall provide that the State agency of the State will make payments of regular compensation to individuals in amounts and to the extent that they would be determined if the State law of the State were applied, with respect to any week for which the individual is (disregarding this section) otherwise entitled under the State law to receive regular compensation, as if such State law had been modified in a manner such that the amount of regular compensation (including dependents' allowances) payable for any week shall be equal to

(A) the amount determined under the State law (before the application of this paragraph), plus

(B) an additional amount of $600 (in this section referred to as "Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation").

(f) Fraud and Overpayments

(2) Repayment.--In the case of individuals who have received amounts of Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to which they were not entitled, the State shall require such individuals to repay the amounts of such Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation to the State agency...

Since Ms. Haage is not eligible for REGULAR (state) UI benefits, she is also not eligible for FPUC benefits. Ms. Haage has been overpaid FPUC benefits in the gross amount of $1,200.00 for 2 weeks, the week of June 7-13, 2020, and the week of June 14-20, 2020, which should be repaid.

DECISION:

The April 7, 2022, (reference 06) decision is AFFIRMED. Ms. Haage has been overpaid FPUC benefits in the gross amount of $1,200.00, which must be repaid.
