(Administrative Law Judge)

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5-1 – Voluntary Leaving.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed a timely appeal from the March 22, 2004, reference 01, decision that denied benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on April 19, 2004. The claimant did participate. The employer did participate through Annette Kisner, Senior Human Resources Representative, and Lydia Mason, Slots Shift Manager. Claimant's Exhibit A was received.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant was employed as a slots attendant full time beginning May 20, 2002 through February 21, 2004 when he voluntarily quit his job. The claimant quit to explore other job possibilities in Florida. The claimant moved to Florida on February 27, 2004 and has not worked at any other employment since he last worked for Harvey's Casino. The claimant quit to relocate to another vicinity. Continued work was available for him had he chosen not to quit.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant voluntarily left his employment without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code Section 96.5-1 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

871 IAC 24.25(2) provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(2) The claimant moved to a different locality.

The claimant has the burden of proving that the voluntary leaving was for good cause attributable to the employer. Iowa Code Section 96.6-2 (amended 1998).

The claimant's decision to quit to move to another area was not a good-cause reason attributable to the employer for leaving. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The March 22, 2004, reference 01, decision is affirmed. The claimant voluntarily left his employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as he has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times his weekly benefit amount, provided he is otherwise eligible.
