(Administrative Law Judge)

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5-1 - Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

David Moore (claimant) appealed a representative's February 17, 2004 decision (reference 04) that concluded he was not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits because he had voluntarily quit employment with Manpower International (employer). After hearing notices were mailed to the parties' last-known addresses of record, a telephone hearing was held on March 11, 2004. The claimant participated personally. The employer participated by June Lindburg, Staffing Specialist.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The claimant was hired in June 2003 as a temporary employee. On the claimant's last assignment he was a full-time general laborer working from December 12 through December 14, 2003. The claimant accepted an offer of employment on December 22, 2003, but was unable to find the job site. On December 24, 2003, the claimant notified the employer he could not find the job site on December 22, 2003.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether the claimant voluntarily quit without good cause attributable to the employer. For the following reasons the administrative law judge concludes he did.

Iowa Code Section 96.5-1 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

A voluntary leaving of employment requires an intention to terminate the employment relationship accompanied by an overt act of carrying out that intention. Local Lodge #1426 v. Wilson Trailer, 289 N.W.2d 608, 612 (Iowa 1980). The claimant's intention to voluntarily leave work was evidenced by his actions. He did not appear for work. There was no evidence presented at the hearing of good cause attributable to the employer. The claimant voluntarily quit without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The representative's February 17, 2004 decision (reference 04) is affirmed. The claimant voluntarily left work without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until he has worked in and has been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times his weekly benefit amount provided he is otherwise eligible.
