APPEAL 23A-UI-09172-SN-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 08/13/23
Claimant: Respondent (1-R)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j – Voluntary Quitting – Temporary Employment
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.10 – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer, Remedy Intelligent Staffing, filed an appeal from the September 18, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that granted benefits effective August 11, 2023 based upon the conclusion he worked until his assignment was completed. It further explained that she had not been told to request reassignment within three working days of the completion of her last assignment. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on October 12, 2023 at 8:00 a.m. The claimant did not participate. The employer participated through Human Resources Business Partner Becky Golden. Official notice was taken of the agency records. This administrative law judge reopened the record because he did not take information regarding the correct separation from the employer on August 11, 2023.

A new hearing notice was sent to both parties informing them of a hearing on November 6, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. The claimant did not participate. The employer participated through Human Resources Business Partner Becky Golden. No evidence was received into the record.

ISSUES:

Did the claimant quit by not reporting for an additional work assignment within three business days of the end of the last assignment?

Whether the claimant has been overpaid benefits? Whether the claimant is excused from repayment of benefits due to the employer's non-participation?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

The claimant was employed temp-to-hire full-time as a worker at Central Life Services from June 15, 2023, and was separated from the assignment, but not the employment, on August 11, 2023. The employer assignment representative notified the claimant that the assignment had ended. The claimant requested reassignment and received a placement in a full-time production associate position on August 23, 2023 at Warren Distribution.

The claimant walked off the job four and a half hours into her shift at Warren Distribution. The claimant never came back.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes the claimant's separation was with good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are granted, provided she is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. (1) The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

(2) To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

(3) For the purposes of this lettered paragraph:

(a) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(b) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.26(19) provides:

Voluntary quit with good cause attributable to the employer and separations not considered to be voluntary quits. The following are reasons for a claimant leaving employment with good cause attributable to the employer:

(19) The claimant was employed on a temporary basis for assignment to spot jobs or casual labor work and fulfilled the contract of hire when each of the jobs was completed. An election not to report for a new assignment to work shall not be construed as a voluntary leaving of employment. The issue of a refusal of an offer of suitable work shall be adjudicated when an offer of work is made by the former employer. The provisions of Iowa Code § 96.5(3) and rule 24.24(96) are controlling in the determination of suitability of work. However, this subrule shall not apply to substitute school employees who are subject to the provisions of Iowa Code § 96.4(5) which denies benefits that are based on service in an educational institution when the individual declines or refuses to accept a new contract or reasonable assurance of continued employment status. Under this circumstance, the substitute school employee shall be considered to have voluntarily quit employment.

The purpose of the statute is to provide notice to the temporary agency employer that the claimant is available for and seeking work at the end of the temporary assignment. Since she requested reassignment after receiving notification of the end of the assignment, requested reassignment, and there was no work available, no disqualification is imposed.

DECISION:

The September 18, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The claimant's separation from employment was attributable to the employer. Benefits are allowed, provided she is otherwise eligible. Any benefits claimed and withheld on this basis shall be paid.

REMAND:

The administrative law judge is remanding to the Benefits Bureau the issue regarding whether the claimant's separation from the employer on August 23, 2023, is disqualifying with due process rights given to both parties.
