STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the July 17, 2020, unemployment insurance decision that denied Pandemic Unemployment Assistance benefits. This initial appeal case number that was used was incorrect. A new appeal case number using the correct appeal number has been set up and a hearing will be scheduled. A hearing notice will be mailed to the claimant notifying them of the date and time set for hearing. The claimant will need to register a telephone number to participate in the hearing.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal with this incorrect case number in this matter be dismissed?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant filed an appeal to the unemployment insurance benefits decision that denied Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) benefits. A mistake was made when entering the appeal into the system which prompted this incorrect appeal number (20A-UI-09196) to be entered. A new appeal case number (20-A-DUA-00108) has been set up and the claimant will receive a hearing notice with the date and time of the hearing. The claimant must register a telephone number to be contacted at for the hearing by following the instructions on the hearing notice.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.19(3) provides:

Determination and review of benefit rights.

Upon receiving a written request for review or, on its own initiative and on the basis of the facts as it may have in its possession or may acquire, the benefits bureau may affirm, modify, or reverse the prior decision, or refer the claim to an administrative law judge. The claimant or any other party filing the request for review shall be promptly notified of the decision or referral. Unless the claimant or any other party files an appeal within ten days after the date of mailing, the latter decision shall be final, and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance therewith.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.8(1) provides

Withdrawals, dismissals, and postponements.

An appeal may be withdrawn at any time prior to the issuance of a decision upon the request of the appellant and with the approval of an administrative law judge or the manager or chief administrative law judge of the appeals bureau. Requests for withdrawal may be made in writing or orally, provided the oral request is tape-recorded by the presiding officer.

An appeal may be dismissed upon the request of a party or in the agency's discretion when the issue or issues on appeal have been resolved in the appellant's favor.

The claimant filed an appeal to the July 17, 2020 unemployment insurance decision that denied Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) benefits. The incorrect appeal number was issued to this case. A new appeal number has been entered (20-A-DUA-00108) and will be docketed for hearing, with notice of the hearing provided to the claimant. As such, the appeal with the incorrect case number should be dismissed.

DECISION:

The appeal in this case is dismissed as the incorrect case number was used. The claimant's appeal from the unemployment insurance benefits decision denying Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) benefits shall be addressed in the case using the correct appeal number, which is (20-A-DUA-00108). A notice of hearing will be mailed to the claimant with instructions on how to register for the hearing.
