Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 20, 2022, claimant Norma A. Frazier filed an appeal from the November 4, 2022 (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on a determination that claimant was not able to work due to surgery. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephonic hearing was held at 8:00 a.m. on Wednesday, January 18, 2023. Appeal numbers 22A-UI-19948-LJ-T and 22A-UI-19949-LJ-T were heard together and created one record. The claimant, Norma Frazier, participated. The employer, Community Action Agency of Siouxland, did not participate. Department Exhibits D-1 and D-2 received and admitted into the record. The administrative law judge now takes official notice of the administrative record for the limited purpose of determining whether the Appeals Bureau has any record of any appeal from claimant Norma Frazier other than the December 20, 2022 appeal; it does not.

ISSUE:

Did the claimant file a timely appeal?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The decision denying claimant benefits was mailed to her last known address of record on November 4, 2022. She did receive the decision in November 2022. The first sentence of the decision states, "If this decision denies benefits and is not reversed on appeal, it may result in an overpayment which you will be required to repay." The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by November 14, 2022. The appeal was not filed until December 20, 2022, which is after the date noticed on the disqualification decision. Claimant believed she filed an appeal online in November but has no record of that appeal or recollection of when it would have been filed. The Appeals Bureau online appeal mailbox has no record of any appeal from claimant filed on any date other than December 20, 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant failed to file a timely appeal.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed.<sup>1</sup> Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Here, the claimant received the decision in the mail and was able to read and understand its contents. She had a fair opportunity to file an appeal prior to the appeal deadline. No evidence in the record indicates claimant's delay was due to an error or misinformation from Iowa Workforce Development or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay. Claimant's appeal was not filed on time and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to decide the substantive issue in this matter.

DECISION:

The November 4, 2022 (reference 05) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant failed to file a timely appeal. The decision of the representative remains in effect.

2. Si nadie presenta una apelación de la decisión del juez ante la Junta de Apelaciones Laborales dentro de los quince (15) días, la decisión se convierte en acción final de la agencia y usted tiene la opción de presentar una petición de revisión judicial en el Tribunal de Distrito dentro de los treinta (30) días después de que la decisión adquiriera firmeza.
