(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5-5 - Severance Pay

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant appealed a representative's decision dated December 31, 2003, reference 02, that concluded claimant was ineligible for the three weeks ending, December 27, 2003 for unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $240.00. A telephone hearing was scheduled and held on January 28, 2004 pursuant to due notice. Claimant did participate. Employer participated by Misty Mentzel, Chief Financial Officer. Exhibits One and Two were admitted into evidence.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant's employment with employer was separated on November 26, 2003 and claimant received vacation pay in the amount of $409.28 and severance pay in the amount of $768.00 based upon a rate of pay at $8.00 per hour. Employer did designate the period of time to which the severance pay was to be applied. Claimant worked 24 hours per week.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes that severance pay was deducted for the correct period.

Iowa Code Section 96.5-5 provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

5. Other compensation. For any week with respect to which the individual is receiving or has received payment in the form of any of the following:

a. Wages in lieu of notice, separation allowance, severance pay, or dismissal pay.

b. Compensation for temporary disability under the workers' compensation law of any state or under a similar law of the United States.

c. A governmental or other pension, retirement or retired pay, annuity, or any other similar periodic payment made under a plan maintained or contributed to by a base period or chargeable employer where, except for benefits under the federal Social Security Act or the federal Railroad Retirement Act of 1974 or the corresponding provisions of prior law, the plan's eligibility requirements or benefit payments are affected by the base period employment or the remuneration for the base period employment. However, if an individual's benefits are reduced due to the receipt of a payment under this paragraph, the reduction shall be decreased by the same percentage as the percentage contribution of the individual to the plan under which the payment is made.

Provided, that if the remuneration is less than the benefits which would otherwise be due under this chapter, the individual is entitled to receive for the week, if otherwise eligible, benefits reduced by the amount of the remuneration. Provided further, if benefits were paid for any week under this chapter for a period when benefits, remuneration or compensation under paragraph "a", "b", or "c", were paid on a retroactive basis for the same period, or any part thereof, the department shall recover the excess amount of benefits paid by the department for the period, and no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid. However, compensation for service-connected disabilities or compensation for accrued leave based on military service, by the beneficiary, with the armed forces of the United States, irrespective of the amount of the benefit, does not disqualify any individual, otherwise qualified, from any of the benefits contemplated herein. A deduction shall not be made from the amount of benefits payable for a week for individuals receiving federal social security pensions to take into account the individuals' contributions to the pension program.

Because employer did designate a time period to which the severance pay is to apply, the amount was correctly deducted from the three weeks of benefits November 30, 2003 through December 27, 2003.

DECISION:

The December 31, 2003, reference 02, decision is affirmed. The severance pay was deducted for the correct period. Claimant is overpaid unemployment benefits in the amount of $240.00.
