(Administrative Law Judge)

(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5(1)j – Quit/Temporary

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer, Cambridge, filed an appeal from a decision dated March 14, 2006, reference 02. The decision allowed benefits to the claimant, Richard Evers. After due notice was issued a hearing was held by telephone conference call on April 17, 2006. The claimant participated on his own behalf. The employer participated by Account Manager Paula Ruden.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witnesses and having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Richard Evers was employed by Cambridge from May 11 until June 10, 2005. He had one assignment during that time at Farmtek. That assignment ended on June 10, 2006, when the supervisor said the work was done and the temporary workers were no longer needed. Mr. Evers contacted Cambridge that same day and asked for another assignment but nothing was available.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether the claimant is disqualified. The judge concludes he is not.

Iowa Code section 96.5-1-j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

The claimant followed the policy of the employer and contacted the office immediately upon the end of his last assignment. No work was available to him and the employer did not contact him for another assignment after that until late September. He has met the requirements of the above Code section and disqualification may not be imposed.

DECISION:

The representative's decision of March 14, 2006, reference 02, is affirmed. Richard Evers is qualified for benefits, provided he is otherwise eligible.
