Iowa Code section 17A.12(3) – Default
871 Iowa Administrative Code 26.14(6)-(7) – Failure to Appear

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

On April 8, 2016, Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) issued a decision that Jaymi M. Luck (claimant) was not eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits (UIB) effective April 3, 2016 because of failure to report for a reemployment and eligibility assessment on April 6, 2016. On April 12, 2016, Luck filed the appeal.

On April 28, 2016, the Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals (IWD), Division of Administrative Hearings (administrative hearings), issued a Notice of Telephone Hearing to all parties setting a hearing date of May 24, 2016 at 9:30 a.m. The notice contained instructions regarding how to participate in the telephone hearing.

On May 24, 2016 at 9:25 a.m., the administrative law judge connected for the hearing. Velma M. Sallis, an IWD advisor, timely connected for the hearing. As of 9:42 a.m., neither Luck nor a representative for Luck connected for the hearing.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The Iowa Department of Workforce Development (IWD) is created to administer the laws of this state relating to unemployment compensation insurance, job placement and training, employment safety, labor standards, and workers' compensation. Iowa Code section 84A.1(1).

Economic insecurity due to unemployment is a serious menace to the health, morals, and welfare of the people of this state. Involuntary unemployment is therefore a subject of general interest and concern which requires appropriate action by the legislature to prevent its spread and to lighten its burden which now so often falls with crushing force upon the unemployed worker and the worker's family. See Iowa Code section 96.2.

If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals bureau with the names and telephone numbers of the persons who are participating in the hearing by the scheduled starting time of the hearing or is not available at the telephone number provided, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to provide a telephone number or is unavailable for the hearing, the presiding officer may decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provided in Iowa Code section 17A.12(3). The record may be reopened if the absent party makes a request to reopen the hearing under subrule 26.8(3) and shows good cause for reopening the hearing. See 871 Iowa Administrative Code (IAC) section 26.14(7).

In the case at issue, absent evidence to the contrary, Luck timely received the Notice of Telephone Hearing mailed to Luck on April 28, 2016 at Luck's current address. Since Luck failed to connect for the scheduled appeal hearing on May 24, 2016 by 9:42 a.m., it is ORDERED that Luck defaulted on the appeal and Luck's appeal is dismissed.

DECISION

IWD shall take any actions necessary to implement this decision.
