DECISION

Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timely Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Marna S. Montgomery, the claimant/appellant, filed an appeal from the Iowa Workforce Development April 27, 2022 (reference 01) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. The decision denied Ms. Montgomery REGULAR (state) UI benefits because IWD concluded that she voluntarily quit working for this employer on March 25, 2022 because she was dissatisfied with her work conditions. The Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals UI Appeals Bureau mailed notices of hearing to Ms. Montgomery and the employer. A telephone hearing was held on January 27, 2023. Ms. Montgomery participated personally. The employer participated through Mary Greiner, executive director of strategic human resources. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is Ms. Montgomery's appeal filed on time?

Did Ms. Montgomery voluntarily quit without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: IWD mailed the April 27 2022, (reference 01) UI decision to Ms. Montgomery at the correct address on April 27, 2022. The UI decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by the IWD Appeals Section by May 7, 2022.

Ms. Montgomery received the decision in the mail in late April/early May 2022. Ms. Montgomery assumed that she could not appeal so she did not do so at that time. Also, the employer stated in the fact-finding interview in late April 2022 that Ms. Montgomery could apply for the job she previously held. Ms. Montgomery focused on applying for that job instead of filing an appeal.

Ms. Montgomery reopened her UI claim on December 18, 2022. At some point after that, Ms. Montgomery talked with an IWD representative. The representative told Ms. Montgomery that the reference 01 UI decision connected to this employer that denied her benefits was still in effect and told Ms. Montgomery that she could file an appeal. Ms. Montgomery filed an appeal online on January 9, 2023. The appeal was received on January 9, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes Ms. Montgomery's appeal of the April 27, 2022 (reference 01) UI decision was not filed on time.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

2. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

- (2) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

- (b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

- (c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed.¹ Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid.²

Ms. Montgomery received the April 27, 2022 (reference 01) UI decision before the appeal deadline and, therefore, could have filed an appeal by the deadline. The notice provision of the decision was valid. Ms. Montgomery's delay in filing her appeal was not due to an error or misinformation from the Department or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay in filing her appeal. Ms. Montgomery's appeal of the April 27, 2022 (reference 01) UI decision was not filed on time and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction (authority) to decide the other issues in this matter.

DECISION:

Ms. Montgomery's appeal of the April 27, 2022 (reference 01) UI decision was not filed on time. The April 27, 2022 (reference 01) UI decision denying Ms. Montgomery REGULAR (state) UI benefits is AFFIRMED.
