Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On January 27, 2024, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the December 26, 2023, (reference 11) unemployment insurance decision that concluded the claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $367.00 from July 23, 2023, and July 29, 2023, as a result of a disqualification decision that found claimant did not complete reemployment activities for the week. The appellant was properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on February 20, 2024. The hearing was held with appeal 24A-UI-01120-CS-T; 24A-UI-01121-CS-T; 24A-UI-01122-CS-T; 24A-UI-01123-CS-T; 24A-UI-01124-CS-T; 24A-UI-01125-CS-T; and 24A-UI-01128-CS-T and combined into one record. The claimant participated. Administrative notice was taken of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records, including DBRO.

ISSUE:

- I. Is claimant's appeal timely?
- II. Was the claimant overpaid benefits which must be repaid?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: A unemployment insurance decision that found claimant was overpaid $367.00 in unemployment benefits from July 23, 2023 through July 29, 2023, due to failing to complete four reemployment activities, was mailed to the claimant's last known address of record on December 26, 2023 in Princeton, MO. Claimant rotates between two addresses one in Princeton, MO and one in Blythedale, MO. In December 2023 claimant was living at the address in Blythedale. Claimant did not have her mail forwarded from her Princeton address or notify Iowa Workforce Development she has two addresses. A person checks claimant's mail but did not notify claimant she had mail. Claimant did not receive the decision until she returned to the Princeton address on January 26, 2024. The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by January 5, 2024. The appeal was not filed until January 27, 2024.

The claimant filed a new claim for unemployment insurance benefits with an effective date of April 30, 2023. The claimant filed for and received a total of $367.00 in unemployment insurance benefits for the weeks between July 23, 2023 and July 29, 2023.

The unemployment insurance decision that disqualified the claimant from receiving unemployment insurance benefits has been affirmed in a decision of the administrative law judge in appeal 24A-UI-01122-CS-T.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal is untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of § 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to § 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving § 96.5, subsection 10, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to § 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving § 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding § 96.8, subsection 5.

The ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision, unless otherwise corrected immediately below that entry, is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Bd. of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976). Pursuant to rules Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.2(96)(1) and 871 IAC 24.35(96)(1), appeals are considered filed when postmarked, if mailed. Messina v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 341 N.W.2d 52 (Iowa 1983).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date of the decision and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

In this case the claimant chose not to have her mail forwarded to her other address in Blythedale or contact IWD and notify them she has two addresses. Claimant knew she would be living in Blythedale several months before she returned to the Princeton address. The administrative law judge concludes the failure to file a timely appeal within the time prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law was not due to any Agency error or misinformation, or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the appeal was not timely filed pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.6(2), and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979) and Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The December 26, 2023, (reference 11) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative remains in effect.
