

IOWA DEPARTMENT OF INSPECTIONS AND APPEALS
ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS DIVISION, UI APPEALS BUREAU

GLORIA N NELSON
Claimant

APPEAL 22A-UI-17795-AR-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 10/25/20
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On October 7, 2022, the claimant filed an appeal from the November 15, 2021, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision that determined claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $976.00 for the two-week period ending November 7, 2020. After due notice was issued, a telephone hearing was held on November 16, 2022. Appeal numbers 22A-UI-17794-AR-T and 22A-UI-17795-AR-T were heard together and created one record. Claimant, Gloria N. Nelson, participated personally. Department Exhibit D-1 was admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant's appeal timely?
Is the claimant overpaid unemployment insurance benefits?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: An overpayment decision was mailed to claimant's last known address of record on November 15, 2021. She did not receive the decision. However, her mailing address changed in March 2020, and she had not updated her mailing address with Iowa Workforce Development (IWD). The address on record with IWD was her parents' address. They did not inform her if she received the decision at their address. The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by November 25, 2021. The appeal was not filed until October 7, 2022, which is after the date noticed on the disqualification decision. Claimant does not know whether this decision was ever delivered to her parents' house. She filed her appeal after finding the underlying decision at her parents' home on October 6, 2022.

Claimant filed for and has received regular unemployment insurance benefits in the gross amount of $976.00 for the two-week period ending November 7, 2020. On January 27, 2021, IWD issued a decision (reference 02) that disqualified claimant from receiving regular unemployment insurance benefits. That decision has been affirmed. See 22A-UI-17794-AR-T.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal is untimely.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Here, claimant neglected to update IWD with her new mailing address. As of the date of the hearing, she had not updated the mailing address with IWD. The decision was mailed out in a timely manner, and there is no indication that it was delayed by agency error or the US Postal Service. Claimant's delay was not due to an error or misinformation from the Department or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay. Claimant's appeal was not filed on time and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to decide the other issue in this matter.

Even if the claimant's appeal was timely filed, the administrative law judge concludes claimant is overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the gross amount of $976.00 because the decision that created the overpayment remains in effect. Those benefits must be repaid to the agency.

DECISION:

The November 15, 2021, (reference 03) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative remains in effect. Alternatively, claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $976.00, and those benefits must be repaid.
