ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 12/18/22
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On May 17, 2023, Fareway Stores Inc. (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated May 9, 2023, (reference 06), for the first quarter of 2023. A hearing was held on June 21, 2023, pursuant to due notice. Brett M. Hutchinson (claimant) participated personally. The employer participated through HR Manager Stephanie Rohrer. The Department's Exhibits D-1 through D-3 were admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The notice of claim was provided to the employer via the online SIDES system on December 21, 2022. It stated that a response was due by January 3, 2023. The employer received the notice of claim. A response to that notice of claim was not submitted until January 9, 2023. The employer did not know precisely why it responded to the notice of claim late. Rohrer theorized that the email notification may not have been received, but she could not say with certainty that was the case. The employer received a statement of charges dated May 9, 2023, for the first quarter of 2023. The statement included a charge for benefits paid to the claimant beginning December 18, 2022. The employer filed its appeal of that statement of charges on May 17, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing. [Emphasis added.]

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

The evidence in the record establishes an untimely protest. The employer's witness could not say with any certainty why the protest was filed after the deadline; she could only speak in general terms about the reasons the employer may have filed a protest after the deadline in other circumstances. The employer has not demonstrated that the delay in filing the protest was due to agency error or delay due to any other good-cause reason. The protest was untimely filed, and because the quarterly statement of charges mailed May 9, 2023, was not the employer's first notice of the claim, the employer does not meet the conditions to appeal the statement of charges.

DECISION:

The May 9, 2023, (reference 06), statement of charges for the first quarter of 2023 is AFFIRMED. The employer has failed to file a timely protest response, and it does not meet the conditions to appeal the statement of charges.
