STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

An appeal was filed from an unemployment insurance decision dated January 7, 2010, reference 01, that concluded James Gurwell (claimant) was eligible for unemployment insurance benefits after a separation from employment from Ruan Leasing Company (employer). Notices of hearing were sent to both parties' last known addresses of record for a telephone hearing to be held at 8:00 a.m. on February 25, 2010. The appellant did not participate in the hearing. The administrative law judge considered the record closed at 8:10 a.m. At 8:15 a.m., the employer called the Appeals Section and requested that the record be reopened. Based on the appellant's failure to participate in the hearing, the administrative file, and the law, the administrative law judge enters the following findings of fact, reasoning and conclusions of law, and decision.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether the unemployment insurance decision previously entered in this case should be affirmed.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having heard the testimony and having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The employer received the hearing notice prior to the February 25, 2010 hearing. The instructions inform the parties that if the party does not contact the Appeals Section and provide the phone number at which the party can be contacted for the hearing, the party will not be called for the hearing. The first time the employer directly contacted the Appeals Section was on February 25, 2010, 15 minutes after the scheduled start time for the hearing. The Appeals Section did not have a number for the employer and the employer did not have a control number.

The employer contacted its employer representative to ask whether it had a control number. The employer representative advised its witness a fax had been sent to the Appeals Section providing telephone numbers for the hearing but no fax was received from the employer representative. The hearing notice specifically instructs parties to call in their telephone numbers and advises parties they will not be called if they do not call in. The employer representative in this case, Thomas and Thorngren, has previously participated in numerous Iowa unemployment appeal hearings and has previously complied with the hearing notice instructions.

The administrative law judge has conducted a careful review of the administrative file to determine whether the unemployment insurance decision should be affirmed.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act § 17A.12-3 provides in pertinent part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. If a decision is rendered against a party who failed to appear for the hearing and the presiding officer is timely requested by that party to vacate the decision for good cause, the time for initiating a further appeal is stayed pending a determination by the presiding officer to grant or deny the request. If adequate reasons are provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall vacate the decision and, after proper service of notice, conduct another evidentiary hearing. If adequate reasons are not provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall deny the motion to vacate.

871 IAC 26.14(7) provides:

(7) If a party has not responded to a notice of telephone hearing by providing the appeals section with the names and telephone numbers of its witnesses by the scheduled time of the hearing, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing.

a. If an absent party responds to the hearing notice while the hearing is in progress, the presiding officer shall pause to admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.

b. If a party responds to the notice of hearing after the record has been closed and any party which has participated is no longer on the telephone line, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party. Instead, the presiding officer shall inquire as to why the party was late in responding to the notice of hearing. For good cause shown, the presiding officer shall reopen the record and cause further notice of hearing to be issued to all parties of record. The record shall not be reopened if the presiding officer does not find good cause for the party's late response to the notice of hearing.

c. Failure to read or follow the instructions on the notice of hearing shall not constitute good cause for reopening the record.

At issue is a request to reopen the record made after the hearing had concluded. The request to reopen the record is denied because the party making the request failed to participate by reading and following the instructions on the hearing notice.

The administrative law judge has carefully reviewed evidence in the record and concludes that the unemployment insurance decision previously entered in this case is correct and should be affirmed. 871 IAC 25.8(5).

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated January 7, 2010, reference 01, is affirmed. The decision holding the claimant qualified for benefits remains in effect.
