APPEAL 22A-UI-16931-JD-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 04/19/20
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timely Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.3(7) – Recovery of Benefit Overpayment
Public Law 116-136, Sec. 2104 – Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPUC)
Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(7) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On August 26, 2022, Eddy Ramirez, Jr., (claimant/appellant) filed an appeal from the May 5, 2022, reference 04, unemployment insurance decision that concluded that the claimant was overpaid FPUC benefits for the three-week period between June 14, 2020 through July 4, 2020. A notice of hearing was mailed to the appellant's last known address of record for an in-person hearing scheduled for October 17, 2022 in Sioux City, Iowa. The appellant failed to appear in person for the hearing and as such, no hearing was held

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed based on the appellant's failure to appear and participate?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The appellant was properly notified of the scheduled hearing for this appeal. The appellant failed to appear in person for the scheduled hearing, as required by the hearing notice. The appellant did not request a postponement of the hearing before the hearing date. No requests for postponements of the hearing were made by the appellant.

The hearing notice instruction specifically advises parties as follows:

IMPORTANT!

When you arrive at the hearing location, do not wait in line. You should immediately ask workforce center staff where to go for the hearing. On the scheduled date, you must be present at the location identified above and ready to participate in the hearing at the scheduled time.

The record was left open for a period after the initial hearing start time to give the appellant a reasonable opportunity to appear at the location and participate. Holding the appellant in default for failure to appear and participate during the grace period after the hearing start time is entirely reasonable considering the time allocated for unemployment hearings.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides that if a party fails to appear or participate in a hearing after proper service of notice, the judge may enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party.

Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides in pertinent part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(6) provides:

(6) If one or more parties which received notice for a contested case hearing fail to appear at the time and place of an in-person hearing, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to appear, the presiding officer may decide the party is in default and dismiss the appeal. The hearing may be reopened if the absent party makes a request in writing to reopen the hearing under subrule 26.8(3) and shows good cause for reopening the hearing.

a. If an absent party arrives for an in-person hearing while the hearing is in session, the presiding officer shall pause to admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.

b. If an absent party arrives for an in-person hearing after the record has been closed and after any party which had participated in the hearing has departed, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party.

Due process requires notice and an opportunity to be heard, both of which were provided to the parties. The appellant is responsible for going forward with the case in a prompt and thoughtful manner. The appellant must be present at the start of the hearing to avoid a default judgment. Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) and Iowa Admin. Code r. 26.14(6). The hearing notice instructs the parties to arrive at the specific location at the scheduled date and time to participate in the hearing.

The Iowa Supreme Court has held a default should not be set aside due to the appellant's negligence, carelessness, or inattention. See Houlihan v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 545 N.W.2d 863 (Iowa 1996). Similarly, a default should not be set aside because the appellant has ignored clear requirements in the rules. Rather, a party must show it intended to proceed with the appeal and took steps to do so, but failed to appear because of some misunderstanding, accident, mistake or excusable neglect. The appellant was not present at the start of the hearing or during the grace period prior to the record being closed. The representative's decision remains in force and effect.

DECISION:

The May 5, 2022, reference 04, unemployment insurance decision remains in effect as the appellant is in default and the appeal is dismissed.
