APPEAL 23A-UI-04262-AW-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

DAVENPORT IA HOMECARE LLC
Employer

OC: 04/17/22
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from the April 17, 2023 (reference 09) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits finding claimant was discharged on March 13, 2023 for excessive unexcused absenteeism. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on May 10, 2023. Claimant participated personally. Employer participated through Executive Director Dr. Betsy Morthland. Claimant's Exhibits A through C were admitted.

ISSUE:

Whether claimant's separation was a discharge for disqualifying job-related misconduct.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant was employed as a PRN, or as needed, Homecare Professional from October 11, 2022 until her employment with Davenport Iowa Homecare ended on March 13, 2023. Claimant's direct supervisor was Paul Bush, Office Manager. Claimant did not have a set schedule.

Employer has an attendance policy outlined in an employee manual. Claimant had access to the manual. The policy states that failure to report to a shift without notifying employer will result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

On March 11, 2023, claimant did not report to work and did not notify employer prior to the beginning of her shift. Claimant was absent because she was angry and frustrated with employer who only assigned her one of the shifts she requested for the week. Claimant did not believe it was worth the gas money to work on March 11, 2023.

On March 13, 2023, employer discharged claimant for her no-call/no-show absence on March 11, 2023 in violation of employer's policy. Employer is not aware of any other employees who violated the policy and were not discharged.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.5(2)(a) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

2. Discharge for misconduct. If the department finds that the individual has been discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment:

a. The disqualification shall continue until the individual has worked in and has been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Code section 96.5(2)d(2) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

2. Discharge for misconduct. If the department finds that the individual has been discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment:

d. For the purposes of this subsection, "misconduct" means a deliberate act or omission by an employee that constitutes a material breach of the duties and obligations arising out of the employee's contract of employment. Misconduct is limited to conduct evincing such willful or wanton disregard of an employer's interest as is found in deliberate violation or disregard of standards of behavior which the employer has the right to expect of employees, or in carelessness or negligence of such degree of recurrence as to manifest equal culpability, wrongful intent or evil design, or to show an intentional and substantial disregard of the employer's interests or of the employee's duties and obligations to the employer. Misconduct by an individual includes but is not limited to all of the following:

(2) Knowing violation of a reasonable and uniformly enforced rule of an employer.

The employer has the burden of proof in establishing disqualifying job misconduct. Cosper v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 321 N.W.2d 6 (Iowa 1982).

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.32(8) provides:

(8) Past acts of misconduct. While past acts and warnings can be used to determine the magnitude of a current act of misconduct, a discharge cannot be based on such past act or acts. The termination of employment must be based on a current act.

A determination as to whether an employee's act is misconduct does not rest solely on the interpretation or application of the employer's policy or rule. A violation is not necessarily disqualifying misconduct even if the employer was fully within its rights to impose discipline up to or including discharge for the incident under its policy. The issue is not whether the employer made a correct decision in separating claimant, but whether the claimant is entitled to unemployment insurance benefits. Infante v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 364 N.W.2d 262 (Iowa Ct. App. 1984). What constitutes misconduct justifying termination of an employee and what misconduct warrants denial of unemployment insurance benefits are two separate decisions. Pierce v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 425 N.W.2d 679 (Iowa Ct. App. 1988).

Misconduct serious enough to warrant discharge is not necessarily serious enough to warrant a denial of job insurance benefits. Such misconduct must be "substantial." Newman v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 351 N.W.2d 806 (Iowa Ct. App. 1984). The law limits disqualifying misconduct to substantial and willful wrongdoing or repeated carelessness or negligence that equals willful misconduct in culpability. Lee v. Employment Appeal Bd., 616 N.W.2d 661 (Iowa 2000).

Claimant decided not to attend work on March 13, 2023 because employer did not assign her all of the shifts that she requested for the week. Claimant did not notify employer of her absence prior to the shift. Claimant was a no-call/no-show in violation of employer's reasonable and uniformly enforced rule. Claimant's absence was substantial given the nature of her work as a Homecare Professional. Employer discharged claimant for disqualifying job-related misconduct. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The April 17, 2023 (reference 09) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. Claimant was discharged for disqualifying job-related misconduct. Benefits are denied until claimant has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times claimant's weekly benefit amount, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
