APPEAL 23A-UI-11182-PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 10/22/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.3 – Able & Available – Identity Verification

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 1, 2023, claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated November 20, 2023, (reference 01) that allowed benefits effective November 12, 2023, based upon a determination that claimant initially failed to provide verification of his identity but subsequently did so. Claimant was notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on December 19, 2023. The claimant participated personally through a CTS Language Link Bosnian interpreter. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant's appeal is timely?
Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Did the claimant timely provide verification of his identity?
Did the claimant fail to report as directed by a department representative?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) mailed the reference 01 unemployment insurance decision to claimant's address of record on November 20, 2023. Claimant received the decision a few days after the mailing date.

The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by November 30, 2023. However, if the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. As November 30, 2023, was a Thursday, the deadline for claimant to submit his appeal was Thursday, November 30, 2023. Claimant electronically submitted his appeal on December 1, 2023, which is after the appeal deadline noticed on the decision. At the hearing, claimant did not provide a specific reason as to why the appeal was untimely, however, he indicated that he found the process confusing and initially did not realize that he needed to file an appeal.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's appeal was untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: "[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision."

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

The weight of the evidence indicates that the November 20, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision was delivered to the claimant's address of record in a timely manner, prior to the November 30, 2023, appeal deadline, but claimant did not submit his appeal until after the deadline. Claimant's delay was not due to agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. Claimant had a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion but waited until after the deadline to file the appeal. As claimant's appeal was not timely filed, pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.6(2), the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal. See, Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979); see also, Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979).

DECISION:

The November 20, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative that held claimant was not available for work during the three-week period ending November 11, 2023, because claimant failed to provide verification of identity, but allowed benefits effective November 12, 2023, remains in effect.
