CRAIG D FLEENER
Claimant

APPEAL NO. 14A-UI-00011-NT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 06/12/94
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Section 96.24(2) – Withholding of State Payments to Offset Overpayment
Section 96.6-2 – Timeliness of Appeal

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a representative's decision dated November 26, 2013, reference 01, which withheld $1,356.00 from the claimant's Iowa lottery prize to be applied less a $7.00 transfer fee to the claimant's outstanding overpayment balance of $1,356.00. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held by telephone on January 27, 2014. The claimant participated.

ISSUE:

At issue in this matter is whether the appeal filed herein was timely.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds: That a disqualification decision was mailed to the claimant's last-known address of record on November 26, 2013. Mr. Fleener moved from his address of record at 4323 Hickman Road, Des Moines, Iowa 50310 on approximately November 28, 2013. Mr. Fleener did not change his address of record with Iowa Workforce Development or with the U.S. Postal Service, but made arrangements with a resident at the 4323 Hickman Road location to hold his mail. Mr. Fleener did not pick up his mail from the Hickman Road location on a regular basis. Later Mr. Fleener learned that he was to be the recipient of an Iowa lottery prize. When informed that the amount of $1,356.00 was being withheld from the lottery prize to repay an overpayment in unemployment insurance benefits, Mr. Fleener then retrieved his mail that was being held for him at the Hickman Road location. The claimant deposited his letter of appeal with the U.S. Postal Service on December 30, 2013. The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by Appeals Section by December 6, 2013. As the appeal was not filed until December 30, 2013, which is after the date noticed on the disqualification decision, the claimant's appeal was considered not timely.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6-2 provides:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant. The representative shall promptly examine the claim and any protest, take the initiative to ascertain relevant information concerning the claim, and, on the basis of the facts found by the representative, shall determine whether or not the claim is valid, the week with respect to which benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and its maximum duration, and whether any disqualification shall be imposed. The claimant has the burden of proving that the claimant meets the basic eligibility conditions of section 96.4. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to section 96.5, except as provided by this subsection. The claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence showing that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 10, and has the burden of proving that a voluntary quit pursuant to section 96.5, subsection 1, was for good cause attributable to the employer and that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraphs "a" through "h". Unless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision. If an administrative law judge affirms a decision of the representative, or the appeal board affirms a decision of the administrative law judge allowing benefits, the benefits shall be paid regardless of any appeal which is thereafter taken, but if the decision is finally reversed, no employer's account shall be charged with benefits so paid and this relief from charges shall apply to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

The claimant's delay in receiving the adjudicator's determination dated November 26, 2013 was not due to any agency error or misinformation or delay or other action by the United States Postal Service pursuant to 871 IAC 24.35(2). The delay took place because Mr. Fleener had moved from his address of record without changing his address with either the U.S. Postal Service or Iowa Workforce Development and because the claimant was not picking up his mail from the 4323 Hickman Road, Des Moines, Iowa, location on a regular basis.

Ten calendar days for appeal begins running on the mailing date. The "decision date" found in the upper right-hand portion of the representative's decision unless otherwise corrected is presumptive evidence of the date of mailing. Gaskins v. Unempl. Comp. Bd. of Rev., 429 A.2d 138 (Pa. Comm. 1981); Johnson v. Board of Adjustment, 239 N.W.2d 873, 92 A.L.R.3d 304 (Iowa 1976).

The record in this case shows that more than ten calendar days elapsed between the mailing date and the date this appeal was filed. The Iowa Supreme Court of Iowa has declared there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representative's decisions within the time allotted by statute and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Department of Job Service, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Department of Job Service, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott, 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion. Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

The administrative law judge concludes that the failure to file a timely appeal within the time prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law was not due to Agency error or action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to 871 IAC 24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the appeal was not timely filed pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.6-2 and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the appeal.

DECISION:

The representative's decision dated November 26, 2013, reference 01, is hereby affirmed. The appeal in this case was not timely and the decision of the representative remains in effect.
