ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

BRIGHTSTAR CRDM LLC

Employer

OC: 05/07/23

Claimant: Appellant (4R)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able and Available

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) - Able & Available - Part time, same hours and wages

Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the June 7, 2023 (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits as of May 7, 2023, based on a finding claimant was still employed for the same hours and wages. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was scheduled for July 5, 2023, Claimant requested a postponement to await discovery responses from employer. The request was granted. After due notice was issued, a telephone hearing was held on July 20, 2023. Claimant Rhesa E. Peary participated and was represented by Iowa Legal Aid student attorney Delaney Kelly and supervising attorney Morgan Jensen. Jennifer Medina observed on behalf of claimant. Employer Brightstar CRDM, LLC participated through branch manager Zoey Thompson and was represented by chief legal officer Cheryl Stanton. Claimant's Exhibits 1 – 9 were admitted.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant eligible for unemployment benefits beginning May 7, 2023? Is claimant employed for the same hours and wages?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant was employed as a part-time caregiver from March 15, 2023, and separated permanently on or around May 11, 2023. Claimant worked additional hours during the month of April when she picked up hours performing administrative tasks in the office while her supervisor was absent. On May 11, 2023, employer notified claimant it no longer had any work available for her due to a lack of office hours and client hours.

Claimant has no barriers to her ability to and availability for work. Claimant filed her claim for benefits effective May 7, 2023.

This issue of claimant's permanent separation from employment has not been addressed by Iowa Workforce Development's Benefits Bureau.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes as follows:

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.19, subsection 38, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3, are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) provides:

As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

- 38. "Total and partial unemployment".
- a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.
- b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:
 - (1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.
 - (2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.
- c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work, or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2)a provides:

Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

- a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.
- (a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.23(26) provides:

Availability disqualifications. The following are reasons for a claimant being disqualified for being unavailable for work.

(26) Where a claimant is still employed in a part-time job at the same hours and wages as contemplated in the original contract for hire and is not working on a reduced workweek basis different from the contract for hire, such claimant cannot be considered partially unemployed.

Under Iowa Employment Security Law, an individual must be unemployed to be eligible for benefits. Iowa Code § 96.1A(37). Total and temporary unemployment occur when an individual has received no wages and performed no services during any given week. Id. An individual who is totally unemployed has been permanently separated from an employer, whereas, an individual who is temporarily unemployed has not been permanently separated from employment. To be partially unemployed, an individual must be working less than their regular full-time work week and earn less than their weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars. Id.

Here, claimant was not employed at the same hours and wages as during her employment. Employer had no office work or client work available for claimant. Claimant performed no work and received no wages beginning May 11, 2023, due to a lack of work. As such, she is totally unemployed. Benefits are allowed effective May 11, 2023, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The June 7, 2023 (reference 01) decision is modified in favor of the appellant/claimant. Claimant was totally unemployed and able to and available for work effective May 11, 2023, and benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

REMAND:

The issue of claimant's separation is remanded to lowa Workforce Development's Benefits Bureau for an investigation and a determination regarding the separation.
