SECTION: 96.5

DECISION

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge issued a decision October 26, 2023. The decision was favorable to the Claimant and found he was eligible for benefits based on the separation from a former employer, Apex Systems, LLC. On October 30, the Claimant appealed the decision of the administrative law judge to the Employment Appeal Board.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Pursuant to 486 IAC 3.1(2), "[a]ny person aggrieved by a job service decision of an administrative law judge may appeal to the employment appeal board" The Employment Appeal Board interprets an aggrieved person to be one who receives an unfavorable decision from the administrative law judge.

Here, the decision of the administrative law judge is favorable to the Claimant. The Employment Appeal Board is limited to determining only if someone is eligible for unemployment insurance benefits based on the decision appealed. The current decision appealed finds the Claimant is eligible to receive benefits based on the separation from Apex Systems, LLC. For this reasons, the Claimant's current appeal on a decision that finds him eligible for benefits must be and is dismissed.

DECISION:

The Claimant's appeal is DISMISSED. The decision of the administrative law judge finding the Claimant eligible for unemployment insurance benefits based on the separation from Apex Systems, LLC remains in full force and effect.

If the Claimant is currently not receiving benefits, it may be due to a different decision or issue on the claim over which the Employment Appeal Board does not currently have jurisdiction, and the Claimant should contact Iowa Workforce Development customer service for further assistance.
