APPEAL 23A-UI-02218-JD-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 01/29/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On March 1, 2023, Nohn Ben, (claimant/appellant) filed an appeal from the February 20, 2023, reference 01, unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on a finding that the claimant voluntarily quit her employment on November 9, 2022, for personal reasons. A telephone hearing was held at on March 20, 2023 pursuant to due notice. The claimant, Nohn Ben, participated and testified. The employer Wal-Mart participated through Ashley Clayton, Store Lead. Employer Exhibits 1 & 2 were admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether the claimant voluntarily quit the employment with good cause attributable to employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer on November 29, 2020. Claimant last worked as a full-time greeter. Claimant was separated from employment on November 9, 2022, when voluntarily quit her employment to go on vacation. Claimant had scheduled approved vacation from October 31, 2022, through December 4, 2022. Claimant had planned a trip to Africa to visit family. The claimant's travel plans hit a snag and she needed to revise her travel dates from November 19, 2022, through December 23, 2022. Employer informed her that they would not be able to approve the revised requested vacation absences due to a store-wide policy that did not approve vacation during the Christmas holiday. The claimant decided that she was going to follow through with her vacation plans and voluntarily quit her employment on November 9, 2022.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's separation from the employment was without good cause attributable to the employer.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25(25) in pertinent provides:

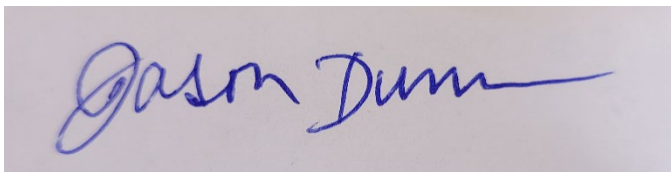

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(25) The claimant left to take a vacation.

The employer was within its right to deny the claimant's request to change her vacation days as they interfered with core business needs. The claimant's decision to go ahead and take her vacation was understandable but her decision was her own. The claimant voluntarily quit her employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The February 20, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. Claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible
