DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

Original Claim: 08-24-08
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.3(7) - Recovery of Benefit Overpayment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant appealed the September 25, 2009, reference 02, decision that concluded the claimant was overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $40.00 for the one-week period ending June 27, 2009 as a result of his failure to report wages. A telephone hearing was held on October 28, 2009, pursuant to due notice. The claimant did participate. Department's Exhibit D-1 was received.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether claimant was overpaid benefits.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The overpayment issue in this case was created when the claimant reported to his local workforce office on July 1, 2009 and reported that he had failed to properly report the receipt of $130.00 in wages for the week ending June 27, 2009 when he called in his claim. The next week the claimant also earned and reported wages in the amount of $130.00. The claimant was overpaid unemployment benefits in the amount of $40.00 for the week ending June 27, 2009 due to his failure to correctly report his wages.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The administrative law judge concludes claimant has been overpaid benefits for the period in question.

Iowa Code § 96.3-7, as amended in 2008, provides:

7. Recovery of overpayment of benefits.
 - a. If an individual receives benefits for which the individual is subsequently determined to be ineligible, even though the individual acts in good faith and is not otherwise at fault, the benefits shall be recovered. The department in its discretion may recover the overpayment of benefits either by having a sum equal to the overpayment deducted from any future benefits payable to the individual or by having the individual pay to the department a sum equal to the overpayment.

b. (1) If the department determines that an overpayment has been made, the charge for the overpayment against the employer's account shall be removed and the account shall be credited with an amount equal to the overpayment from the unemployment compensation trust fund and this credit shall include both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5. However, provided the benefits were not received as the result of fraud or willful misrepresentation by the individual, benefits shall not be recovered from an individual if the employer did not participate in the initial determination to award benefits pursuant to section 96.6, subsection 2, and an overpayment occurred because of a subsequent reversal on appeal regarding the issue of the individual's separation from employment. The employer shall not be charged with the benefits.

(2) An accounting firm, agent, unemployment insurance accounting firm, or other entity that represents an employer in unemployment claim matters and demonstrates a continuous pattern of failing to participate in the initial determinations to award benefits, as determined and defined by rule by the department, shall be denied permission by the department to represent any employers in unemployment insurance matters. This subparagraph does not apply to attorneys or counselors admitted to practice in the courts of this state pursuant to section 602.10101.

The administrative law judge concludes that the claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $40.00 pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.3(7), as the claimant failed to correctly report his wages for that week.

DECISION:

The September 25, 2009, reference 02, decision is affirmed. The claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits in the amount of $40.00.
