Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able and Available for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed an appeal from a decision of a representative dated March 24, 2023, (reference 02) that held claimant was not able to and available for work as of February 19, 2023. After due notice, a telephone hearing was scheduled for and held on April 17, 2023. Claimant participated personally. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Whether the claimant is able to and available for work.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed with Parker-Hannifin Corporation as a full-time manufacturing team-lead worker beginning August 1999. Claimant's employment with Parker-Hannifin Corporation ended on February 13, 2023. Since his employment ended, claimant has been able to work and available for work. Claimant is willing to work full-time, any hours of the day, any days of the week.

In early-March 2023, John Deere made claimant a job offer contingent on claimant passing a drug test, a background check, and a physical. After accepting the conditional job offer, claimant continued actively and earnestly seeking work by completing four reemployment activities for each week in which he filed a weekly claim for benefits. Claimant began a new job at John Deere on April 10, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(1) and (2) provide:

Benefits eligibility conditions. For an individual to be eligible to receive benefits the department must find that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. The individual bears the burden of establishing that the individual is able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work.

(1) Able to work. An individual must be physically and mentally able to work in some gainful employment, not necessarily in the individual's customary occupation, but which is engaged in by others as a means of livelihood.

***

(2) Available for work. The availability requirement is satisfied when an individual is willing, able, and ready to accept suitable work which the individual does not have good cause to refuse, that is, the individual is genuinely attached to the labor market. Since, under unemployment insurance laws, it is the availability of an individual that is required to be tested, the labor market must be described in terms of the individual. A labor market for an individual means a market for the type of service which the individual offers in the geographical area in which the individual offers the service. Market in that sense does not mean that job vacancies must exist; the purpose of unemployment insurance is to compensate for lack of job vacancies. It means only that the type of services which an individual is offering is generally performed in the geographical area in which the individual is offering the services.

Claimant has established that since his employment ended, he has been able to work, available for work, and earnestly and actively seeking work. As such, claimant is considered able and available for work as of February 19, 2023.

DECISION:

The March 24, 2023, (reference 02) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant is able to and available for work effective February 19, 2023. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible.
