UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS BUREAU

JOHN H STOVALL
Claimant

TRI CITY ELECTRIC CO OF IOWA
Employer

APPEAL 24A-UI-04659-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 02/18/24
Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On May 14, 2024, Tri City Electric Co. of Iowa (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated May 9, 2024, (reference 01) for the first quarter of 2024. A hearing was held on May 29, 2024, pursuant to due notice. John H. Stovall (claimant) did not respond to the hearing notice and did not participate. The employer participated through Training and Development/HR Associate Nichole Leyendecker. The Department's Exhibits D-1 through D-3 were received. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Was the employer's protest timely?
Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The notice of claim was generated in the online SIDES system on February 21, 2024. The employer does not know whether the email notification regarding the notice of claim was received. The witness stated that they receive so many emails related to unemployment, there was no way of knowing whether the notice was received. The employer received a statement of charges dated May 9, 2024, for the first quarter of 2024. The employer filed its appeal of that statement of charges on May 14, 2024.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did not timely file its appeal to the statement of charges.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing. [Emphasis added.]

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—26.4 provides, in relevant part:

2. An appeal from an initial decision concerning the allowance or denial of benefits shall be filed, by mail, facsimile, or e-mail, online, or in person, not later than ten calendar days, as determined by the postmark or the date stamp after the decision was mailed to the party at its last-known address and shall state the following:

- a. The name, address and social security number of the claimant;
- b. A reference to the decision from which appeal is taken; and,
- c. The grounds upon which the appeal is based.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a contributory employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 30 days from the mailing date of the quarterly statement of benefit charges.

4. Also notwithstanding the provisions of subrule 26.4(2), a reimbursable employer, which has not previously received a notice of the filing of a valid claim for benefits, may appeal an individual's eligibility to receive benefits within 15 days of the mailing date of the quarterly billing of benefit charges.

The employer has not demonstrated that it did not receive the notice of claim in a timely manner. The employer's witness indicated that there was no way of knowing whether the email was not received or whether it was simply overlooked. Accordingly, the employer has not demonstrated that it had no notice of claimant's claim for benefits at or around the time the notice of claim was generated, and that it was unable to protest the claim in a timely manner, as is its burden.

DECISION:

The May 9, 2024, (reference 01) statement of charges for the first quarter of 2024 is AFFIRMED. The employer did not timely file its protest and has not demonstrated that it was prevented from doing so because of technological or agency error.
