APPEAL NO. 14A-UI-01162-HT

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

ADVANCE SERVICES
Employer

OC: 01/05/14
Claimant: Respondent (2)

Section 96.5(1)j – Quit/Temp

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer, Advance Services, filed an appeal from a decision dated January 31, 2014, reference 03. The decision allowed benefits to the claimant, Kimie Likisap. After due notice was issued a hearing was held by telephone conference call on February 24, 2014. The claimant did not provide a telephone number where she could be contacted and did not participate. The employer participated by Human Resources Coordinator Raquel Palimino.

ISSUE:

The issue is whether the claimant quit work with good cause attributable to the employer.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Kimie Likisap was employed by Advance Services from July 29, 2013 until January 11, 2014. Her last assignment began January 8, 2014, at Simco. On January 11, 2014, she contacted Advance Service and spoke with Leanne Schemmel. She said she was quitting the assignment because there was too much dust in the work place. She did not request another assignment.

Ms. Likisap filed a claim for unemployment benefits with an effective date of January 5, 2014. The records of Iowa Workforce Development indicate no benefits have been paid as of the date of the hearing.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.5-1-j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, but the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

The claimant left an assignment with a client company and did notify the temporary agency. But she did not request a new assignment within three working days as required. Under the provisions of the above Administrative Code section, this is a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer and the claimant is disqualified.

DECISION:

The unemployment insurance decision dated January 31, 2014, reference 03, is reversed. Kimie Likisap is disqualified and benefits are withheld until she has earned ten times her weekly benefit amount in insured work, provided she is otherwise eligible.
