(Decision Dated & Mailed)

Section 96.5(1)j – Quit/Temporary

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer, Sedona Staffing, filed an appeal from a decision dated February 22, 2006, reference 03. The decision allowed benefits to the claimant, Andrea Schaefer. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held by telephone conference call on March 27, 2006. The claimant did not provide a telephone number where she could be contacted and did not participate. The employer participated by Account Manager Tom Appel.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony of the witness and having examined all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Andrea Schaefer was employed by Sedona Staffing from August 8 until August 29, 2005. She worked for two client companies and the second assignment ended August 29, 2005. Ms. Schaefer did not contact Sedona Staffing to notify it the second assignment had ended and to request another one. She was notified of the company policy to report within three days at the time she was hired.

Andrea Schaefer filed a claim for unemployment benefits with an effective date of January 29, 2006. The records of Iowa Workforce Development indicate no benefits have been paid as of the date of the hearing.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The issue is whether the claimant is disqualified. The judge concludes she is.

Iowa Code Section 96.5-1-j provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department, But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

j. The individual is a temporary employee of a temporary employment firm who notifies the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment and who seeks reassignment. Failure of the individual to notify the temporary employment firm of completion of an employment assignment within three working days of the completion of each employment assignment under a contract of hire shall be deemed a voluntary quit unless the individual was not advised in writing of the duty to notify the temporary employment firm upon completion of an employment assignment or the individual had good cause for not contacting the temporary employment firm within three working days and notified the firm at the first reasonable opportunity thereafter.

To show that the employee was advised in writing of the notification requirement of this paragraph, the temporary employment firm shall advise the temporary employee by requiring the temporary employee, at the time of employment with the temporary employment firm, to read and sign a document that provides a clear and concise explanation of the notification requirement and the consequences of a failure to notify. The document shall be separate from any contract of employment and a copy of the signed document shall be provided to the temporary employee.

For the purposes of this paragraph:

(1) "Temporary employee" means an individual who is employed by a temporary employment firm to provide services to clients to supplement their work force during absences, seasonal workloads, temporary skill or labor market shortages, and for special assignments and projects.

(2) "Temporary employment firm" means a person engaged in the business of employing temporary employees.

Under the provisions of the above Code section, the claimant's failure to notify the temporary agency of the end of one assignment and to request another one within three days is considered a voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer. She is disqualified.

DECISION:

The representative's decision of February 22, 2006, reference 03, is reversed. Andrea Schaefer is disqualified and benefits are withheld until she has earned ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
