APPEAL 25A-UI-01973 PT-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

TADAN'S TOUCH OF HOPE
Employer

OC: 01/05/25
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.13(6) – Dismissal of Appeal on Default

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Troy McAllister, the claimant/appellant,¹ appealed the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) January 28, 2025 (reference 01) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. The decision concluded the claimant was ineligible for UI benefits after a separation from employment. The Iowa Department of Inspections, Appeals, and Licensing (DIAL), UI Appeals Bureau mailed a notice of hearing to each party's last known address of record for a telephone hearing scheduled for March 31, 2025.

Troy McAllister did not call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time the hearing was scheduled to begin. Because Troy McAllister filed the appeal but did not call in to participate, the undersigned administrative law judge did not hold a hearing.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed because Troy McAllister did not appear and participate in the appeal hearing?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The DIAL UI Appeals Bureau properly notified the claimant of the scheduled hearing for this appeal. Troy McAllister did not call the toll-free number listed on the hearing notice at the time scheduled for this appeal hearing. Troy McAllister did not request a postponement of the hearing before the hearing date. Troy McAllister did not call in before the record was closed 15 minutes after the hearing was scheduled to begin. The undersigned was available at the date and time scheduled for the hearing. The undersigned did not hold a hearing because Troy McAllister did not appear ¹ Claimant is the person who filed the UI claim with IWD. Appellant is the person or employer who filed the appeal.

The hearing notice lists the hearing date as March 31, 2025, and the hearing time as 8:00 a.m. Iowa time. The hearing notice also advises the claimant:

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

YOU MUST CALL the toll-free number...at the time of the hearing. You may call up to 5 minutes before the hearing. You are not the organizer – Do NOT press 2.

The administrative law judge WILL NOT call you for the hearing, you MUST call into the number provided above to participate. Failure to participate in the hearing may result in the dismissal of your appeal. Failure to participate in the hearing may result in dismissal of your appeal.

The undersigned left the record open after the hearing start time, to give Troy McAllister a reasonable opportunity to participate. Allowing additional time may prejudice the non-appealing party. Holding Troy McAllister in default for not appearing and participating during the grace period after the hearing start time is reasonable considering the time allocated for each appeal hearing.

The UI decision concluded that the claimant was ineligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides, in relevant part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. ... If a decision is rendered against a party who failed to appear for the hearing and the presiding officer is timely requested by that party to vacate the decision for good cause, the time for initiating a further appeal is stayed pending a determination by the presiding officer to grant or deny the request. If adequate reasons are provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall vacate the decision and, after proper service of notice, conduct another evidentiary hearing. If adequate reasons are not provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall deny the motion to vacate.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 26.13(6) provides:

If a party fails to appear for the hearing, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing or decide the appealing party is in default and dismiss the appeal as provided in Iowa Code section 17A.12(3). If no decision has been issued, the absent party may make a written request to reopen the record for good cause as defined in subrule 26.7(3). The presiding officer may reopen the record for additional material, relevant and nonrepetitious evidence not submitted at the case hearing

a. If an absent party responds to the hearing notice while the hearing is in progress, the presiding officer shall admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.

b. If an absent party responds to the notice of hearing after the record has been closed and any party that has participated is no longer on the telephone line or present, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party and the party may file a written request to reopen the record.

c. Once a decision has been entered, the absent party may file an appeal to the employment appeal board to request a new hearing.

Due process requires notice and an opportunity to be heard, both of which were provided to the parties. The appellant is responsible for going forward with the case in a prompt and thoughtful manner. The appellant must be present at the start of the hearing to avoid a default judgment.² The hearing notice instructs the parties to call the toll-free number listed on hearing notice at the time the hearing is scheduled to begin.

Troy McAllister did not call in for the hearing and is in default. The appeal is dismissed and the IWD UI decision remains in force and effect.

DECISION:

The January 28, 2025 (reference 01) UI decision that denied benefits remains in effect as the claimant is in default and the appeal is DISMISSED.
