Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Code § 96.5(3)A – Failure to Accept Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer/appellant filed an appeal from the April 22, 2022 (reference 07) unemployment insurance decision that found claimant was eligible to receive unemployment insurance benefits. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 22, 2022. Claimant Espoir Byamungu participated through a Swahili interpreter with CTS Language Link. Employer ELS of Florida, Inc. participated through assistant manager James Clyde. The administrative law judge took administrative notice of the claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

Was a suitable offer of work made to the claimant?
If so, did the claimant fail to accept and was the failure to do so for a good cause reason?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Employer made an offer of work to the claimant on April 1, 2022. The offer was for a banquet worker in Cedar Rapids, Iowa working eight hours on April 2, 2022. The rate of pay was $12.25 per hour. The offer was made during claimant's sixth week of unemployment. Claimant declined the offer because he wanted a full-time position.

Claimant filed his claim for benefits effective February 20, 2022. The base period includes the fourth quarter of 2020 and the first three quarters of 2021. The claimant had an average weekly wage of $788.89 during the highest quarter of the base period.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the offer of work was not suitable.

Iowa Code § 96.5(3)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

3. Failure to accept work. If the department finds that an individual has failed, without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work when directed by the department or to accept suitable work when offered that individual. The department shall, if possible, furnish the individual with the names of employers which are seeking employees. The individual shall apply to and obtain the signatures of the employers designated by the department on forms provided by the department. However, the employers may refuse to sign the forms. The individual's failure to obtain the signatures of designated employers, which have not refused to sign the forms, shall disqualify the individual for benefits until requalified. To requalify for benefits after disqualification under this subsection, the individual shall work in and be paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

a. (1) In determining whether or not any work is suitable for an individual, the department shall consider the degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals, the individual's physical fitness, prior training, length of unemployment, and prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation, the distance of the available work from the individual's residence, and any other factor which the department finds bears a reasonable relation to the purposes of this paragraph. Work is suitable if the work meets all the other criteria of this paragraph and if the gross weekly wages for the work equal or exceed the following percentages of the individual's average weekly wage for insured work paid to the individual during that quarter of the individual's base period in which the individual's wages were highest:

(a) One hundred percent, if the work is offered during the first five weeks of unemployment.

(b) Seventy-five percent, if the work is offered during the sixth through the twelfth week of unemployment.

(c) Seventy percent, if the work is offered during the thirteenth through the eighteenth week of unemployment.

(d) Sixty-five percent, if the work is offered after the eighteenth week of unemployment.

(2) However, the provisions of this paragraph shall not require an individual to accept employment below the federal minimum wage.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.24 provides, in relevant part:

Failure to accept work and failure to apply for suitable work. Failure to accept work and apply for suitable work shall be removed when the individual shall have worked in (except in back pay awards) and been wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

(1) Bona fide offer of work.

a. In deciding whether or not a claimant failed to accept suitable work, or failed to apply for suitable work, it must first be established that a bona fide offer of work was made to the individual by personal contact or that a referral was offered to the claimant by personal contact to an actual job opening and a definite refusal was made by the individual. For purposes of a recall to work, a registered letter shall be deemed to be sufficient as a personal contact.

...

(8) Refusal disqualification jurisdiction. Both the offer of work or the order to apply for work and the claimant's accompanying refusal must occur within the individual's benefit year, as defined in subrule 24.1(21), before the Iowa Code subsection 96.5(3) disqualification can be imposed. It is not necessary that the offer, the order, or the refusal occur in a week in which the claimant filed a weekly claim for benefits before the disqualification can be imposed.

...

(14) Employment offer from former employer.

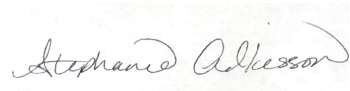

a. The claimant shall be disqualified for a refusal of work with a former employer if the work offered is reasonably suitable and comparable and is within the purview of the usual occupation of the claimant. The provisions of Iowa Code section 96.5(3)"b" are controlling in the determination of suitability of work.

A two-step analysis is used to determine whether a claimant has refused a suitable offer of work. First, the offer must be for suitable work. If suitability is established, then, claimant must have a good cause reason for refusal. See Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.24(3).

To be considered suitable, an offer of work must meet minimum wage requirements set out above. Because the offer was made during claimant's sixth week of unemployment, the offer must meet or exceed 75% of claimant's average weekly wage to be considered suitable. Claimant's average weekly wage was $788.89. Employer's offer was for eight hours for one day of work at a wage of $12.25 per hour, which amounts to a total of $98.00 for the week. The offer did not meet or exceed the minimum wage requirement and, therefore, is not considered suitable. Claimant did not refuse to accept a suitable offer of work. Benefits are allowed provided claimant is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The April 22, 2022, (reference 07) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed. The offer of work was not suitable. Benefits are allowed, provided claimant is otherwise eligible.
