STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer/appellant, Lowe's Home Centers LLC., filed an appeal from the August 10, 2018, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits and relieved the employer of charges.

The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was scheduled to be held on September 7, 2018. The claimant was unavailable when called. At the time of the hearing, the employer/appellant, through Ann Northup, withdrew the appeal. No hearing was held.

ISSUE:

Should the request to withdraw the appeal be granted?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered the evidence in the record, finds that: A request has been made by the appealing party to withdraw the appeal. The request was made verbally by employer representative, Ann Northup, and recorded.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.8(1) provides:

(1) An appeal may be withdrawn at any time prior to the issuance of a decision upon the request of the appellant and with the approval of an administrative law judge or the manager or chief administrative law judge of the appeals bureau. Requests for withdrawal may be made in writing or orally, provided the oral request is tape-recorded by the presiding officer.

An appeal may be dismissed upon the request of a party or in the agency's discretion when the issue or issues on appeal have been resolved in the appellant's favor.

The administrative law judge has reviewed the records and files herein and concludes that the request of the appealing party to withdraw the appeal should be approved.

The scheduled hearing for September 7, 2018 is cancelled.

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated August 10, 2018, (reference 01) is affirmed. The request of the appealing party to withdraw the appeal is approved, and the decision of the representative shall stand and remain in full force and effect: The claimant is eligible for benefits. This employer is relieved of charges.
