SECTION: 96.5-2-A

D E C I S I O N

UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS ARE DENIED

The Claimant appealed this case to the Employment Appeal Board. The members of the Employment Appeal Board reviewed the entire record. The Appeal Board finds the administrative law judge's decision is correct. With the following modification, the administrative law judge's Findings of Fact and Reasoning and Conclusions of Law are adopted by the Board as its own. The administrative law judge's decision is AFFIRMED with the following MODIFICATION:

We have quoted the rule on misconduct, and this rule provides that repeated negligence can be disqualifying. We conclude here that the Employer has proven a pattern of carelessness by the Claimant of such a degree of recurrence as to constitute misconduct under rule 24.32(1)(a). Specifically, we conclude that the employer has proven a pattern of carelessness by the Claimant that is of "equal culpability" to a "deliberate violation or disregard of standards of behavior which the employer has the right to expect of employees." "Culpability" is defined by Black's Law Dictionary to mean "blameworthiness." See also Webster's Third International Dictionary, Unabridged, (1961)(giving "blameworthiness" for definition of culpability). Black's goes on to provide that even in criminal cases "culpability requires a showing that the person acted purposely, knowingly, recklessly, or negligently with respect to each material element..." The word "culpable" is defined in Black's to mean "1. Guilty; blameworthy 2. Involving the breach of a duty." Webster's massive unabridged dictionary notes that the stronger sense of “culpable” meaning “criminal” is in fact “obsolete.” Instead for modern definitions of “culpable” the 3rd unabridged gives “meriting condemnation or censure esp. as criminal <~ plotters> <~ homicides> or as conducive to accident, loss, or disaster <~ negligence.” Webster’s Third International Dictionary, Unabridged, (1961)(emphasis added). Applying the standards of rule 24.32(1)(a) governing repeated carelessness we find that the claimant’s pattern of carelessness proven on this record demonstrates negligence of such a degree of recurrence as to constitute culpable negligence that is as equally culpable as intentional misconduct. The Employer has shown “conduct evincing such willful or wanton disregard of an employer’s interest as is found ...in the carelessness or negligence of such degree of recurrence as to manifest equal culpability [to deliberate violation or disregard]” and we therefore affirm the Administrative Law Judge. 871 IAC 24.32(1)(a).
