Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able and Available/Work Search
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(3) – Earnest and Active Search for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On December 5, 2023, claimant Wayne E. Jones filed an appeal from the November 30, 2023 (reference 09) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits for the week ending March 18, 2023 due to inadequate reemployment activities logged and certified that week. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephonic hearing was held at 8:00 a.m. on Thursday, December 21, 2023. Appeal numbers 23A-UI-11301-LJ-T, 23A-UI-11302-LJ-T, 23A-UI-11303-LJ-T, 23A-UI-11304-LJ-T, 23A-UI-11305-LJ-T, 23A-UI-11306-LJ-T, 23A-UI-11307-LJ-T, and 23A-UI-11308-LJ-T were heard together and created one record. Claimant Wayne E. Jones participated. Iowa Workforce Development (“IWD”) did not participate. No exhibits were admitted into the hearing record. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether claimant is able to and available for work.
Whether claimant failed to make an active work search.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

IWD mailed the reference 01 decision to claimant’s last-known address of record on February 1, 2023. Claimant did not receive the decision. He did, however, receive the reference 02 work search warning that was mailed the following day. When he received that document, he went to the local IowaWorks office in Sioux City and spoke with an employee. He asked for advice, as he was on a seasonal layoff and the employer relied on him to come back in the spring. The IWD employee recommended that he speak with his employer and see if he could work three or four hours each week so he would become exempt from the work search requirement.

Claimant went to his employer and talked to Jay in the office. Jay then talked with the area manager, and they agreed to let claimant come in and work three or four hours each week so that he would remain eligible for benefits yet be exempt from the work search requirement.

Claimant returned to work the week of February 12, 2023, and he reported his gross wages each week once he began working. The chart below reflects claimants weekly claim filings once he returned to work in February 2023:

Week Ending	Gross Wages Reported	Benefits Received
February 18, 2023	$136.00	$482.00
February 25, 2023	$51.00	$495.00
March 4, 2023	$51.00	$495.00
March 11, 2023	$51.00	$495.00
March 18, 2023	$51.00	$495.00
March 25, 2023	$558.00	$0.00

Claimant did not file an appeal at the time, because he returned to work and thought he had resolved the issue. Later, on November 30, he received six denial decisions for the weeks ending February 18; February 25; March 4; March 11; March 18; and March 25, 2023. Claimant appealed those decisions on December 5, and that appeal was also applied to the February 1 and February 2 decisions.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant was not required to search for work for the week in question because he was partially unemployed.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", subparagraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

(Emphasis added.)

Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) provides in relevant part:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

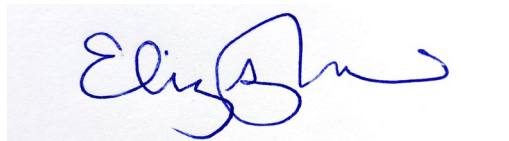

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

Claimant returned to working part time for his employer the week of February 12, 2023. Each week, beginning that week and through the week ending March 25, 2023, claimant worked several hours and reported the gross wages he earned when filing his weekly claim for unemployment insurance benefit. Because claimant was employed at his regular job, working less than his regular full-time week and earning less than his weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars, claimant meets the statutory definition of partially unemployed. Therefore, he was not required to search for work. The decision is modified in his favor and benefits are allowed.

DECISION:

The November 30, 2023 (reference 09) unemployment insurance decision is modified in favor of the claimant/appellant. Claimant was partially unemployed during the week in question and was not required to search for work. Benefits are allowed.
