JAMAL R CLAY

APPEAL 24A-UI-04682-ED
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 02/11/24
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) - Timeliness
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) - Able and Available
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.22(3) – Re-employment Activities

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Jamal Clay, filed an appeal from the February 27, 2024, (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision that issued a warning benefits because of a failure to report as directed and not being able to or available for work. After due notice was issued, an in-person hearing was set for June 4, 2024 in the Cedar Rapids, Iowa Iowa Workforce Development office. The claimant, Jamal Clay, participated personally. David Warburton participated on behalf of the Iowa Workforce Development. No exhibits were offered or admitted.

ISSUES:

Did the claimant file a timely appeal?
Did the claimant fail to report as directed or offer a good cause reason for failure to do so?
Is the claimant able to work and available for work the week-ending February 24, 2024?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The Unemployment Insurance Decision was mailed to the claimant at the correct address on February 27, 2024.

The decision states that it becomes final unless an appeal is postmarked or received by Iowa Workforce Development Appeals Section by March 8, 2024. However, if the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the appeal period is extended to the next working day. Claimant appealed the decision May 15, 2024 after he received the decision that he was overpaid benefits.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant's appeal was untimely.

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant’s last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives’ decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982). The question in this case thus becomes whether the appellant was deprived of a reasonable opportunity to assert an appeal in a timely fashion? Hendren v. IESC, 217 N.W.2d 255 (Iowa 1974); Smith v. IESC, 212 N.W.2d 471, 472 (Iowa 1973).

Claimant received the decision prior to the appeal deadline but did not appeal the decision until after the deadline. Claimant’s delay was not due to agency error or misinformation or delay of the United States Postal Service. Claimant’s delay was due to his decision not to file an appeal until after he received the decision that he was overpaid benefits.

DECISION:

Claimant's appeal was not timely. The administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of the representative. The February 27, 2024 (reference 04) unemployment insurance decision is affirmed.
